Reproductive Health in India
History, Politics, Controversies

Edited by

SARAH HODGES
University of Warwick

Orient Longman
Contents

Acknowledgements vii
List of Contributors ix

1. Towards a History of Reproduction in Modern India
   SARAH HODGES 1

2. Official Attitudes to Population, Birth Control and Reproductive Health in India, 1921–1946
   DAVID ARNOLD 22

3. Authority and Ambivalence: Medical Women and Birth Control in India
   BARBARA N. RAMUSACK 51

4. Purdah as Pathology: Gender and the Circulation of Medical Knowledge in Late Colonial India
   MANEESHA LAL 85

5. Indian Eugenics in an Age of Reform
   SARAH HODGES 115

6. ‘The Best Swadeshi’: Reproductive Health in Bengal, 1840–1940
   SUPRIYA GUHA 139

7. Hindu Wombs, Muslim Progeny: The Numbers Game and Shifting Debates on Widow Remarriage in Uttar Pradesh, 1890s–1930s
   CHARU GUPTA 167

8. Of Dais and Midwives: ‘Middle Class’ Interventions in the Management of Reproductive Health in Colonial Punjab
   ANSHU MALHOTRA 199