Subject Lessons
The Western Education of Colonial India

Sanjay Seth

Duke University Press
Durham and London
2007
Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction 1

PART I: SUBJECT TO PEDAGOGY

1 Changing the Subject:
Western Knowledge and the Question of Difference 17

2 Diagnosing Moral Crisis:
Western Knowledge and Its Indian Object 47

3 Which Past? Whose History? 79

PART II: MODERN KNOWLEDGE, MODERN NATION

4 Governmentality and Identity:
Constituting the "Backward but Proud Muslim" 109

5 Gender and the Nation:
Debating Female Education 129

6 Vernacular Modernity:
The Nationalist Imagination 159

Epilogue:
Knowing Modernity, Being Modern 183

Notes 197

Bibliography 235

Index 259