Contents

List of contributors ix
Foreword xvii
NICHOLAS MERCURO AND SANDRA S. BATIE

1 Power and the troublesome economist: complementarities among recent institutional theorists 1
A. ALLAN SCHMID

2 Some problems in assessing the evolution and impact of institutions 30
WARREN J. SAMUELS

3 Developing a method for analyzing institutional change 48
ELINOR OSTROM

4 Does economic development require "certain" property rights? 77
PETER J. BOETTKE AND J. ROBERT SUBRICK

5 Institutional economics as volitional pragmatism 91
 DANIEL W. BROMLEY

6 Institutions and rationality 113
ARILD VATN

7 Simplicity in institutional design 140
NATHAN BERG
Contents

8 The essence of economics: law, participation and institutional choice (two ways) 165
NEIL KOMESAR

9 Is law facilitating or inhibiting transactions? 187
CLAUDE MÉNARD

10 On Institutional Individualism as a middle-way mode of explanation for approaching organizational issues 203
FERNANDO TOBOSO

11 The role of attitudes in action and institutional change: an evolutionary perspective 244
UTA-MARIA NIEDERLE

12 Post-Keynesian institutionalism and the anxious society 273
CHARLES J. WHALEN

13 Toward a theory of induced institutional change: power, labor markets, and institutional change 300
MORRIS ALTMAN

14 The instituted nature of market information: the case of induced innovation and environmental regulation 330
PATRICIA E. NORRIS, DAVID B. SCHWEIKHARDT, AND ERIC A. SCORSONE

15 The role of culture and social norms in theories of institutional change: the case of agricultural cooperatives 349
JULIE A. HOGELAND

16 Payment for environmental services and other institutions for protecting drinking water in eastern Costa Rica 380
MICHAEL D. KAPLOWITZ, DANIEL V. ORTEGA-PACHECO, AND FRANK LUPI

17 A dialogue on institutions: various approaches to assessing the evolution and impact of alternative institutional structures 402
EDITED BY NICHOLAS MERCURO AND SANDRA S. BATIE

Index 425