Indian Secularism
A Social and Intellectual History
1890–1950

SHABNUM TEJANI
Contents

Acknowledgements viii
Glossary xi
Abbreviations xvii

Introduction 1
The Contemporary Debate 7
The Proposition Encapsulated 12
On Methodology 15
The Architecture of the Argument 21

I: NATIONALISM

1 A Hindu Community in Maharashtra?
Cow Protection, Ganpati Festivals and Music before Mosques 1893–1894 27
Social Reform in Nineteenth-Century Maharashtra 31
Cow Protection 43
The Ganpati Festivals 53
Music before Mosques 61
Conclusion 73

2 Regionalism to Nationalism: Swadeshi and the New Patriotism in Maharashtra 1905–1910 76
Shivaji 80
Non-Brahmans 83
Swadeshi 85
Tilak on Patriotism 91
II: COMMUNALISM

3 From ‘Religious Community’ to ‘Communal Minority’: Muslims and the Debates around Constitutional Reform 1906–1909
   Morley and Minto on Constitutional Reform
   The Legislative Councils and the Question of Representative Authenticity
   Responses to the Proposed Scheme
   Electoral Colleges: The Debate Continued
   Conclusion

4 The Question of Muslim Autonomy: The Khilafat Movement and the Separation of Sind 1919–1932
   Pan-Islamism in India
   Sind in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries
   The Khilafat and Non-cooperation Movements in Sind 1919–1924
   The Ties Unravel
   The Post-Khilafat Period 1924–1930: Gandhi and Mohamed Ali
   Nationalism and Communalism
   Constitution-making 1928–1931
   Conclusion

III: SECULARISM

5 From Untouchable to Hindu: Gandhi, Ambedkar, and the Depressed Classes Question 1932
   Low-caste and Untouchable Reform
   Ambedkar and the Southborough Committee 1919
   Direct Action and Constitutionalism: Untouchable Politics in the 1920s
CONTENTS

The Round Table Conferences 213
The Resolution of the Depressed Classes Question 221
Conclusion 232

6 From Nationalism to Secularism: Defining the Secular Citizen 1946–1950 234
A Context for the Constituent Assembly 236
Composition of the Constituent Assembly 241
Minority Protection: Equality through Reservation 244
Secularism 250
Backwardness 254
Minority Protection Revisited: Equality versus Reservation 257
Conclusion 261

Bibliography 266
Index 297

MAPS

1. Bombay Presidency 32
2. Sind in the Colonial Period 149