Quantifying Theory:
Pierre Bourdieu
Contents

1. Introduction: Approaches to Quantifying Bourdieu .......................... 1
   Chris Sanders and Karen Robson

2. How Bourdieu “Quantified” Bourdieu: The Geometric Modelling of Data .................................................. 11
   Frédéric Lebaron

3. Quantifying the Field of Power in Norway ........................................... 31
   Johs Hjellbrekke and Olav Korsnes

4. The Homology Thesis: Distinction Revisited ........................................ 47
   Philippe Coulangeon and Yannick Lemel

5. Transmutations of Capitals in Canada: A ‘Social Space’ Approach .................. 61
   Gerry Veenstra

6. The Cumulative Impact of Capital on Dispositions Across Time: A 15 Year Perspective of Young Canadians ...................... 75
   Lesley Andres

7. The Influence of Cultural Capital on Educational and Early Labour Market Outcomes of Young People in Australia ......................... 89
   Gary N. Marks

8. Teenage Time Use as Investment in Cultural Capital ............................... 105
   Karen Robson
Cultural Capital and Access to Highly Selective Education:
The Case of Admission to Oxford............................ 117
Anna Zimdars, Alice Sullivan, and Anthony F. Heath

Applying Bourdieu's Concepts of Social and Cultural Capital in Educational Research in Greece and Cyprus.......... 129
Marios Vryonides

Occupational Structures: The Stratification Space of Social Interaction........................................... 141
Wendy Bottero, Paul S. Lambert, Kenneth Prandy, and Stephen McTaggart

Women's Work and Cultural Reproduction:
An Analysis of Non-Wage Labour in Central Ontario, 1861........ 151
Heather L. Garrett

Quantifying Social Class: A Latent Clustering Approach........... 161
Nathan D. Martin

Changing Determinants of Consumption in Hungary, 1982-1998........................................... 175
Péter Róbert

Fanship Habitus: The Consumption of Sport in the US............. 187
Donald P. Levy

Quantifying Habitus: Future Directions................................ 201
William C. Cockerham and Brian P. Hinote

References................................................................... 211

Index.......................................................................... 223