Contents

About the authors xiii
Acknowledgments xv
Preface: Interpreting performances and cultures xvii
   A first mapping: About this book in its second edition xvii
   A second mapping: Theatre in relation to key developments in human communication xix
   A third mapping: Cultural performances, theatre, and drama xx
   A fourth mapping: About historiography xxii
   A caveat on using resources on the World Wide Web xxv
   Additional support for this book online xxv
   Diacritics, spellings, names, and a final note on authorship xxv

PART I Performance and theatre in oral and writing cultures before 1700 1
   Edited by PHILIP B. ZARRilli

Timeline for Part I 2
Introduction: Speech, writing, and performance 3
   The evolution of human language and consciousness 4
   Human language, writing, and society 8
   Performance, communication, and remembrance 13
CONTENTS

1 Oral, ritual, and shamanic performance 15

- Primary orality 16
- Oral performance 17
- Oral texts and their transmission under the written sign: Vedic chanting in India 21
- Ritual specialists: Accessing sacred power 22
- Late Neolithic ritual landscapes and pilgrimage in England 24
- Early Celtic oral and ritual festival performance 26
- Interpreting and understanding ritual 29
- Ritual, ceremony, and collective social life 32
- Healing powers of ritual/shamanic specialists 37
- Summary 38

Case studies
- Yoruba ritual as "play," and "contingency" in the ritual process 40
  - Interpretive approach Theories of play and improvisation 42
- Korean shamanism and the power of speech 45
  - Interpretive approach Speech act theory 49

2 Religious and civic festivals: Early drama and theatre in context 52

- Commemorative ritual “drama” in Abydos, Egypt 53
- Dialogic drama in the city-state of Athens 58
- Mesoamerican performance 65
- Texts in other traditions 70
- Medieval Christian liturgy and drama 71
- Islamic commemorative mourning “dramas”: The Ta'ziyeh of Iran and beyond 80
- Summary 85

Case studies
- Classical Greek theatre: Looking at Oedipus 88
  - Interpretive approach Cognitive spatial relations 94
- Christians and Moors: Medieval performance in Spain and the New World 96
  - Interpretive approach Cultural hierarchy 99

3 Early theatre in court, temple, and marketplace: Pleasure, power, and aesthetics 103

- Drama, theatre, and performance in the Roman Republic and Empire 104
- Indian literary and commemorative drama and theatre 110
Early Chinese and Japanese drama, theatre, and performance  118
Summary  123

Case studies
Plautus's plays: What's so funny?  126
Interpretive approach Part I Henri Bergson's theory of laughter  128
Interpretive approach Part II Bergson's theory in historical perspective  131
Kutiyattam Sanskrit theatre of India: Rasa-bhāva aesthetic theory and the question of taste  133
Interpretive approach Reception theory  135
Kathakali dance-drama: Divine "play" and human suffering on stage  143
Interpretive approach Ethnography and history  143
The silent bell: The Japanese no play, Dōjōji  157
Interpretive approach Feminist and gender theory, modified for medieval Japan  158

PART II  Theatre and performance in print cultures, 1500–1900  169
Edited by BRUCE MCCONACHIE

Timeline for Part II  170
Introduction: China and Western Europe  171
The rise of European professional theatres  173
Institutionalizing drama in Europe  175
Golden Age theatre in Spain, public and court, 1590–1650  179
Neoclassicism and print in Europe  182
Le Cid and French absolutism  184
Scenic perspective in print and on stage  185
Baroque entertainments at court  190
From outdoor festivals to indoor pomp  192
Coming attractions  196

4  Theatre and the state, 1600–1900  199
Theatre and the state in France, 1630–1675  200
From patronage to control in France, 1675–1789  201
Samurai warriors versus kabuki actors, 1600–1670  203
Regulating kabuki, 1670–1868  204
Theatre and the state in England, 1600–1660  206
Patents, censorship, and social order in England, 1660–1790  207
Theatre and the state in England and France, 1790–1900  209
CONTENTS

Case studies
- Molière and carnival laughter
  - Interpretive approach Mikhail M. Bakhtin's concept of the carnivalesque

- Kabuki and bunraku: Mimesis and the hybrid body
  - Interpretive approach Mimesis, hybridity, and the body

- Sexuality in Shakespeare's Twelfth Night
  - Interpretive approach Queer theory

5 Theatres for knowledge through feeling, 1700–1900
235

- Sentimental drama in England
- Sentiment on the continent
- Acting in the eighteenth century
- Theorizing acting
- Performers and the public
- Changes and challenges in sentimentalism
- The French Revolution and melodrama
- Melodramatic spectacle
- Melodrama gains audiences
- Dramatists claim authority

Case studies
- Theatre iconology and the actor as icon: David Garrick
  - Interpretive approach Cultural studies and theatre iconology

- Theatre and cultural hegemony: Comparing popular melodramas
  - Interpretive approach Cultural hegemony

6 Theatre, nation, and empire, 1750–1900
270

- Print, theatre, and nationalism
- Romanticism and the theatre
- Romanticism, history, and nationalism
- Nationalistic stars
- Imperialism and Orientalism in the theatre
- Imperialism and nationalism on the Russian stage
- Settler colonialism and racism in the theatre of the United States
- Theatre riots

Case studies
- Friedrich Schiller's vision of aesthetic education and the German dream of a national theatre
  - Interpretive approach Studies in theatre and national/cultural identity

- The Playboy riots: Nationalism in the Irish theatre
  - Interpretive approach Cognitive linguistics
PART II: Theatre and performance in modern media cultures, 1850–1970

Edited by Bruce McConachie

Timeline for Part III

Introduction: Historical changes after 1850

- Photography and audiophony in the theatre
- Spectacular bodies on the popular stage
- The rise of realism in the West
- Realist producer-directors
- The rise of realism in Japan
- Theatre and politics in Europe and the U.S.
- The emergence of avant-garde theatre
- Modernism in the theatre
- The Great War as a turning point in world theatre

Overview of Chapters 7–10

7 Popular entertainments, 1850–1920

- The circus as popular culture
- Promoting popular entertainment
- Variety theatre
- English music hall
- Theatrical revues
- Popular melodrama and comedy
- Musical theatre
- World fairs and exhibitions

Case studies

- "Blacking up" on the U.S. stage
- Interpretive approach: Reification and utopia in popular culture
- British pantomime: How "bad" theatre remains popular
- Interpretive approach: Phenomenology and history

8 Theatres of the avant-garde, 1880–1940

- Naturalism on stage
- Symbolism and aestheticism
- Futurists and dadaists
- German expressionism
- Film and the avant-garde
- Meyerhold and constructivism
- Surrealism and Artaud
A United States avant-garde? 368
Institutionalizing the avant-garde 369
The end of the first-wave avant-garde 371

Case studies
Psychological and sociological training for the actor 373
Interpretive approach Conceptual integration 375
Discoursing on desire: Desire Under the Elms in the 1920s 381
Interpretive approach Discourse theory 383

9 Modernism in drama and performance, 1880–1970 388
Early modernism in Ibsen and Chekhov 389
High modernism after 1910 392
High modernists Yeats and Pirandello 392
High modernism and religion 394
Beckett and the end of high modernism 395
Theatricalizing modernism after 1940 397
Modernist Shakespeare in England 398
Lyrical abstraction in France 401
Psychological realism in the United States 402
Modernist theory and criticism after 1940 405
Theatrical modernism in Japan 406

Case studies
Ibsen's A Doll House: If Nora were a material girl 408
Interpretive approach Cultural materialism 408
Modernism in Chekhov, Pirandello, and Beckett 417

10 Theatres for reform and revolution, 1920–1970 425
Theatricalizing the Russian Revolution 425
The influence of the Revolution in the West 426
Theatres of anti-imperialism, 1900–1960 428
Postwar theatre in Japan and Germany 430
New national theatres in Europe 432
Theatre and the cold war 434
Other models of political theatre 437
1968 and its consequences 439
CONTENTS

Case studies
Social drama in Kerala, India: Staging the "revolution" 442
  Interpretive approach Politics, ideology, history, and performance 443
Brecht directs Mother Courage 450
  Interpretive approach Semiotics 452

PART IV  Theatre and performance in the age of global communications, 1950–2009 457
Edited by GARY JAY WILLIAMS

Timeline for Part IV 458

Introduction: Colonialism, globalization, media, and theatre 459
  Media and theatre: All in the family 462
  Niche programming in media and theatre: All the families 464
  Globalization, media, theatre, and performance 468
  The media: Power and resistance 470
  Theatre, performance, resistance 472
  Performance art 473
  Theatre in postcolonial African nations 474
  Theatre and media in a globalizing China 477
  Summary 479

11 Rich and poor theatres of globalization 482
  National theatres in the international marketplace 482
  International festivals 485
  Mega-musicals 488
  Radical theatre in the West after 1968 489
  Post-1968 radical theatre in developing nations 491
  Theatres for development 493
  Nuevo Teatro Popular 493
  Community-based theatre since 1990 495

Case studies
  The vortex of Times Square 498
    Interpretive approach Vortices of behavior 500

  Athol Fugard: Theatre of witnessing in South Africa 505
    Interpretive approach Social justice and the artist 508
CONTENTS

12 Director, text, actor, and performance in the postmodern world

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Aristotle to postmodernism: Texts and contexts</td>
<td>512</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Director and text in Antonin Artaud's “theatre of cruelty”</td>
<td>517</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The holy actor as text in Jerzy Grotowski’s “poor theatre”</td>
<td>519</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Peter Brook’s Shakespeare and contemporary authenticity</td>
<td>519</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Terayama Shūji’s disquieting critique of theatrical convention</td>
<td>522</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Suzuki Tadashi’s Euripides</td>
<td>523</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>French negotiations with the classics: Roger Planchon’s Molière</td>
<td>524</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The United States: The Performance Group, La Mama, and The Wooster Group</td>
<td>525</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Theatre of images: Robert Wilson and others</td>
<td>527</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Case studies
- The crisis of representation and the authenticity of performance
- Antonin Artaud and Jacques Derrida
- Interpretive approach Deconstruction
- Global Shakespeare
- Interpretive approach Postcolonial criticism

13 Interculturalism, hybridity, tourism: The performing world on new terms

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Globalization and cross-cultural negotiations in theatre</td>
<td>551</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Historical cross-cultural conversations</td>
<td>551</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Intercultural theatre</td>
<td>552</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Intracultural theatre</td>
<td>557</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Syncretism and hybridity</td>
<td>559</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tourism and performance</td>
<td>561</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Case studies
- Whose Mahabharata is it, anyway? The ethics and aesthetics of intercultural performance
  - Interpretive approach The historian between two views of intercultural performance
- Imagining contemporary China: Gao Xingjian's Wild Man in post-Cultural Revolution China
  - Interpretive approach Theories of national identity
- Backstage/frontstage: Ethnic tourist performances and identity in “America's Little Switzerland"
  - Interpretive approach Sociological theories of tourism and everyday performance

---

Glossary

Index