The Media and Modernity

A SOCIAL THEORY OF THE MEDIA

JOHN B. THOMPSON

Polity
Contents

Preface vii

Introduction 1

1 Communication and Social Context 10
   Action, Power and Communication 12
   The Uses of Communication Media 18
   Some Characteristics of 'Mass Communication' 23
   The Reordering of Space and Time 31
   Communication, Appropriation and Everyday Life 37

2 The Media and the Development of Modern Societies 44
   Some Institutional Dimensions of Modern Societies 47
   Communication, Commodification and the Advent of Printing 52
   The Rise of the Trade in News 63
   The Theory of the Public Sphere: A Preliminary Assessment 69
   The Growth of the Media Industries: An Overview 75

3 The Rise of Mediated Interaction 81
   Three Types of Interaction 82
   The Social Organization of Mediated Quasi-interaction 87
Contents

Action at a Distance (1): Acting for Distant Others 100
Action at a Distance (2): Responsive Action in Distant Contexts 109

4 The Transformation of Visibility 119

The Public and the Private 120
Publics without Places: The Rise of Mediated Publicness 125
The Management of Visibility 134
The Limits of Control: Gaffes, Scandals and Other Sources of Trouble 140

5 The Globalization of Communication 149

The Emergence of Global Communication Networks 151
Patterns of Global Communication Today: An Overview 159
The Theory of Cultural Imperialism: A Reassessment 164
Globalized Diffusion, Localized Appropriation: Towards a Theory of Media Globalization 173

6 The Re-mooring of Tradition 179

The Nature of Tradition 181
Tradition and the Media (1): Tradition Destroyed? 188
Tradition and the Media (2): Tradition Dislodged 197
Migrant Populations, Nomadic Traditions: Some Sources of Cultural Conflict 202

7 Self and Experience in a Mediated World 207

The Self as a Symbolic Project 209
Non-reciprocal Intimacy at a Distance 219
Desequestration and the Mediation of Experience 225
New Options, New Burdens: Living in a Mediated World 232

8 The Reinvention of Publicness 235

Publicness Beyond the State 237
Visibility Beyond the Locale 243
Towards a Renewal of Democratic Politics 249
Towards an Ethics of Global Responsibility 258

Notes 266
Index 299