State and Tribe in Nineteenth-Century Afghanistan
The Reign of Amir Dost Muhammad Khan (1826–1863)

Christine Noelle
CONTENTS

Acknowledgements viii
Preface ix
Abbreviations xi
Introduction xiii

1 DOST MUHAMMAD KHAN'S FIRST REIGN AND THE FIRST ANGLO-AFGHAN WAR 1

The Political Setting in the Early Nineteenth Century 1
The Alikozais 4
The Popalzais 5
The Barakzais 7

Dost Muhammad Khan's Assumption of Power 10
The Power Struggle among the Muhammadzais 1818-1826 10
The Beginnings of Muhammadzai Rule 14
Dost Muhammad Khan's Person 17

Dost Muhammad Khan's Sphere of Influence 1826-1839 22
Kabul in the Early Nineteenth Century 22
The Qizilbash 25
Sunni-Shi'a Frictions 26
Kohistan 30
Bamiyan and Bihsud 32
Dost Muhammad Khan's Consolidation of Power 36

The First Anglo-Afghan War (1839-1842) and Amir Dost Muhammad Khan's Resumption of Power 38
The Events Leading up to the British Invasion 39
Amir Dost Muhammad Khan's Perspective 43
The British Occupation of Afghanistan 47
The Principal Participants in the Uprising of 1841-1842 49
Administrative Measures Taken by Dost Muhammad Khan after his Resumption of Power 56
State and Tribe in Nineteenth-Century Afghanistan

2 AMIR DOST MUHAMMAD KHAN’S POLICIES IN TURKISTAN

Afghan Turkistan – The Geographical and Ethnographical Setting
Physical Features
The Inhabitants

Historical Overview
The Origin of the Uzbeks
The Chingizid System of Government
The Rise of Amirid States
Afghan Turkistan under the Sadozais

The Uzbek Principalities of the Early Nineteenth Century
Maimana
Qilich ‘Ali of Tashqurghan
Mazar-i Sharif and Balkh
Mir Murad Beg of Qunduz
Mir Wali of Tashqurghan

Dost Muhammad Khan’s Intervention in Turkistan
The Beginnings of Afghan Administration
The Extension of Afghan Authority in Western Turkistan
The Conquest of Qunduz

The Effects of the Afghan Administration
Administrative Measures Taken by the Afghan Government
The Sociopolitical Setting in Qataghan and Badakhshan
The Organization of the Afghan Administration

3 THE POSITION OF THE PASHTUN TRIBES IN THE MUHAMMADZAI STATE

Pashtun Organization in the Light of Modern Anthropology
The Concept of ‘Tribe’
The Pashtuns
The Yusufzais of Swat
The Mohmand Agency
The Pashtun Tribes of Khost
The Ghilzais

The Pashtuns in History
The Border Tribes
The Tribes of the Khyber Region
Kurram, Khost and Zurmat
Bajaur
The Mohmands of La’ilpura
Contents

The Western Reaches of the Kabul River 190
  Kunar 191
  The Jabbar Khel Ghilzais 195
  The Babakr Khel Ghilzais 198
The Hotak and Tokhi Ghilzais 207
  The Historical Origins of the Leading Families 208
  The Position of the Leadership in the Early Nineteenth Century 211
  Dost Muhammad Khan's Policies towards the Hotaks and Tokhis 215
  Revenues Raised among the Ghilzais 219

4 DOST MUHAMMAD KHAN'S OCCUPATION OF QANDAHAR AND HIS ADMINISTRATION 228
  The Durranis 229
  Durrani History and Organization 229
  The Policies of the Qandahar Sardars 235
  Dost Muhammad Khan's Occupation of Qandahar 240
  Dost Muhammad Khan's Administration 248
  The Structure of Dost Muhammad Khan’s Government 250
  The Army 258
  The Amir's Revenues 267
  The Role of the Ulama 276
  Trade 280

5 CONCLUSION 290

Notes 298
Glossary 366
Appendix A: Maps 375
Appendix B: Genealogical Tables 383
Appendix C: Currencies 398
Appendix D: The Service Grants Made by Ahmad Shah in the Qandahar Region 401
Appendix E: The Urban Population of Afghan Turkistan 402
Bibliography 405
Index 425