The American Society of International Law

The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and the Process of International Claims Resolution

A Study by the Panel on State Responsibility of the American Society of International Law

Edited by

David D. Caron
John R. Crook

Transnational Publishers, Inc.
Ardsley, New York
CONTENTS

Preface xi
Contributors xi

Chapter 1 Tribunals as Institutions
David D. Caron and John R. Crook 3

PART I: ESTABLISHING THE INSTITUTION

Chapter 2 Getting Started
David D. Caron and John R. Crook 11

Chapter 3 The Role of the Agent
Arthur W. Rovine 19

Chapter 4 International Tribunals and the Role of the Host Government
David D. Caron 27

Document 4-1 Legislation Regarding the Applicability of Dutch Law to the Awards of the Tribunal 37

Documents 4-2 Correspondence Between the Tribunal and the Foreign Ministry of the Netherlands Regarding the Privileges and Immunities of the Tribunal 43

Chapter 5 The Perspective of the Claimant Community
Brice M. Clagett 59

Chapter 6 The Selection of Arbitrators
George H. Aldrich 65

Chapter 7 Drafting the Rules of the Tribunal
Howard M. Holtzmann 75
Chapter 8 Institutional Aspects of the Tribunal
Christopher Pinto ............................................. 95

Documents 8-1 Tribunal Presidential Orders
Number One and Eight ......................... 117

Documents 8-2 Correspondence Regarding
Religious Discrimination in Staff
Recruitment ............................................. 121

PART II: THE TRIBUNAL AT WORK

Chapter 9 The Tribunal at Work
David D. Caron and John R. Crook ......................... 133

Chapter 10 The Tribunal at Mid-Life: The American Agent’s View
John R. Crook ............................................. 149

Chapter 11 Reflections on the Tribunal: A Farewell Address
Karl-Heinz Böckstiegel .................................. 153

Chapter 12 The Appointing Authority
Robert Briner ............................................. 157

Documents 12-1 Correspondence Concerning the Physical Assault on Judge Mângard ... 175

Chapter 13 The Pace of the Proceedings
Richard M. Mosk ........................................ 201

Document 13-1 The 1983 Perspective of the Iranian Agent on the Pace of Proceedings ............................................. 217

Documents 13-2 Correspondence Regarding
Proposed Handling of Claims for
Less Than 250,000 U.S. Dollars ....... 229

Chapter 14 The Process of Decision-Making
Matti Pellonpää ........................................... 233

Documents 14-1 Correspondence Regarding the Apparent Disclosure of
Confidential Information ..................... 243

Chapter 15 The Interpersonal Dynamics of Arbitral
Decision-Making (I)
Charles N. Brower ..................................... 249
Contents • vii

Chapter 16 The Interpersonal Dynamics of Arbitral Decision-Making (II)
Nils Mangård ................................................. 253

Chapter 17 The Interpersonal Dynamics of Arbitral Decision-Making (III)
Parviz Ansari Moin ........................................ 263

Chapter 18 The Tribunal’s Use of Experts
Richard C. Allison and Howard M. Holtzmann ............ 269

Chapter 19 Settlements
Peter D. Trooboff ............................................. 283

Chapter 20 Securing Payment of the Award
Sean D. Murphy .............................................. 299

Chapter 21 Issues of Language and Translation
Douglas D. Reichert ......................................... 313

Document 21-1 Internal Tribunal Guidelines
for the Translation of Documentary Evidence .............. 327

PART III: THE CLOSING STAGES OF THE TRIBUNAL AND ITS WORK

Chapter 22 Moving to End Game
David D. Caron and John R. Crook ......................... 331

Chapter 23 The Long Twilight: An Agent’s View of the Closing Stages
Lucy F. Reed .................................................. 339

Chapter 24 Reflections on the Tribunal’s Waning Years
Jeffrey L. Bleich ............................................ 345

Chapter 25 The Task Remaining: The Government Cases
Ronald J. Bettauer .......................................... 355

CONCLUSIONS

Chapter 26 Concluding Reflections
David D. Caron and John R. Crook ......................... 363
APPENDICES

Appendix 1  The General Declaration ............... 373
Appendix 2  The Claims Settlement Declaration .......... 379
Appendix 3  The Undertakings ....................... 383
Appendix 4  The Escrow Agreement ................... 387
Appendix 5  The Technical Agreements ............... 393
Appendix 6  The Tribunal Rules of Procedure ........... 433
Appendix 7  Publically Available Statistics on Work of the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal .................. 473

Guide to Sources ........................................ 477
David D. Caron, John R. Crook, Lee Caplan, and Cymie Payne

Index ..................................................... 501