Contents

Preface, by Michael Blair ix

Contributors xi

Table of Cases xiii

Table of Statutes xiv

Table of Statutory Instruments xxxix

Abbreviations xliii

1 The Policy Background, by Michael Taylor 1
Financial regulation at the time of the Wilson Committee — The 1980s and the advent of statutory regulation — The confluence of the three streams — Other influences on the legislation — Conclusion

2 Accountability and Objectives of the FSA, by Michael Taylor 17
A private company discharging a public function — Institutional mechanisms for accountability — Objectives and principles — Principles of regulation

3 Regulated and Prohibited Activities, by Mark Threipland 37
The general prohibition — Regulated activities — Activities carried on 'by way of business' — Territorial scope of the general prohibition — False claims to be authorised or exempt — Sanctions for breach of the general prohibition

4 Financial Promotion, by Mark Threipland 52
Existing UK legislation — Other UK legislation relevant to financial promotion — Other parts of FSAMA 2000 relevant to financial promotion — Why is a financial promotion regime needed at all? — Restriction on financial promotion — Territorial scope — Introduction to the Financial Promotion Exemptions Order — Sanctions — Financial promotion by authorised persons
5 Authorisation and Exemption, by Mark Threipland 72

6 Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities, by Michael Blair 83
What is permission? — Conditions, limitations and requirements — Threshold conditions — Variation and cancellation of permission — Assets requirements — Overseas regulators

7 Performance of Regulated Activities, by Michael Blair 92
Prohibition orders — Positive power of approval — Statements of principle on the conduct of approved persons — Disciplinary powers — Statement of policy

8 Official Listing, by George Walker 97
Listing — Public offerings — Official list — Listing particulars — Prospectuses — Sponsors — Penalties — Competition — Obligations of issuers — Investigations — Advertisements, penalties, fees and immunity — Listing rules

9 Control of Business Transfers, by Michael Blair 111

10 Penalties for Market Abuse, by George Walker 113
Market offences — Drafting and revision — Market abuse — Code of market conduct — Designated markets and investments — Procedure — Penalties

11 Hearings and Appeals, by Loretta Minghella 129
Composition of the Tribunal — References to the Tribunal — Proceedings before the Tribunal — Decisions of the Tribunal — Appeals

12 Rules and Guidance, by Mark Threipland 135
Existing legislation — FSA’s powers to impose requirements — General provisions applying to classes of persons — Varying and interpreting requirements case-by-case — General rule-making power — Other specific rule-making powers in Part X — Sanctions for contravention of rules — Procedure for making rules — Competition scrutiny of the FSA

13 Information Gathering and Investigations, by Loretta Minghella 153
Powers to gather information — Reports by skilled persons — General investigations — Particular investigations — Investigations in support of overseas regulators — Investigation powers: general provisions — Powers of investigators — Admissibility of statements made to investigators — Entry of premises under warrant — Consequences of failure to cooperate
14 Control over Authorised Persons, by Michael Taylor & Michael Blair 163
EC legislation — Implementation in UK law — Approval by the FSA — Offences

15 Incoming Firms: Intervention by the FSA, by Michael Blair 170
Domestic ground for intervention — Scope of the power of intervention — Exercise of powers in support of overseas regulators — Consumer credit

16 Disciplinary Measures, by Loretta Minghella 174

17 Compensation, by Michael Blair 179
Previous bodies — European requirements — The consumer’s view of compensation — The industry’s view of compensation — Obtaining information — Insurance issues — Structure of the scheme

18 The Ombudsman Scheme, by Michael Blair 185
Structure of the scheme — Operation of the compulsory jurisdiction — The voluntary jurisdiction — The ombudsmen and the scheme operator

19 Collective Investment Schemes, by George Walker 193
Origins and development — Collective investment schemes — Restrictions on promotion — Authorised unit trust schemes — Open-ended investment companies — Recognised overseas schemes — Investigations

20 Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses, by George Walker 207
Existing recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses — Recognition regime — Recognition of investment exchanges and clearing houses — Recognition requirements — RIE and RCH Sourcebook — Competition scrutiny — Market infrastructure

21 Lloyd’s of London, by George Walker 223
Historical origin — Structure of Lloyd’s — Market operation — The new framework — The legislation — Conduct in the market

22 Provision of Financial Services by Members of the Professions, by Michael Blair 238
The scheme in Part XX — Exemption: the conditions — The machinery to make exemption workable

23 Mutual Societies, by Michael Blair 243
24 Auditors, by George Walker
Appointment and information rules — Disclosure by auditors to the FSA — Rules issuance

25 Public Record, Disclosure of Information and Cooperation,
   by Loretta Minghella
The public record to be maintained by the FSA — Restrictions on disclosure of confidential information — Duty of the FSA to cooperate with other authorities

26 Insolvency, by Loretta Minghella
Voluntary arrangements — Administration orders — Receiverships — Voluntary winding up — Winding up by the court — Winding up petitions for EEA and Treaty firms — Bankruptcy — Provisions against debt avoidance — Supplemental provisions in insurance cases

27 Injunctions and Restitution, by Loretta Minghella
Contravention of relevant requirements — Market abuse — Restitution required by the FSA

28 Notices, by Loretta Minghella

29 Criminal Offences and their Prosecution, by Loretta Minghella
Prosecution of offences — Specific offences — Notable differences from the current framework

30 Miscellaneous, Interpretation and Supplemental, by Michael Blair
Reviews of compliance failures — Third countries: Community measures — International obligations — Gaming — Interpretation — Supplemental provisions

Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

Index