Contents

List of Contributors vii
Series Preface x
Acknowledgments xi

1 Introduction 1
Jiří Přibáň and David Nelken

PART I: THEORIZING AUTOPOIETIC LAW

2 Alienating Justice: On the Surplus Value of the Twelfth Camel 21
Gunther Teubner

3 The Specific Autopoiesis of Law: Between Derivative Autonomy and Generalised Paradox 45
Jean Clam

4 The Representation of Law’s Autonomy in Autopoiesis Theory 80
Roger Cotterrell

5 Legitimation Between the Noise of Politics and the Order of Law: A Critique of Autopoietic Rationality 104
Jiří Přibáň

6 The Construction and Demolition of the Luhmann Heresy 123
Michael King

PART II: APPLYING AUTOPOIETIC LAW THEORY

7 Autopoiesis and the Natural Environment 159
Eric W. Orts
8 The Concept of Reflexive Labour Law: Its Theoretical Background and Possible Applications
   Ralf Rogowski 179

9 Criminal Justice: Autopoietic Insights
   Richard Nobles and David Schiff 197

10 Modernising Justice Inside ‘UK PLC’: Mimesis, De-differentiation and Colonisation
   Tim Murphy 218

11 Abiding the World: Globalism and the Lex Mercatoria
   Peter Fitzpatrick 249

12 Beyond the Metaphor of Legal Transplants?: Consequences of Autopoietic Theory for the Study of Cross-Cultural Legal Adaptation
   David Nelken 265