EUROPEAN MONOGRAPHS

European Cooperation between Tax, Customs and Judicial Authorities

The Netherlands, England and Wales, France and Germany

Edited by:
Professor J.A.E. Vervaele and Professor A.H. Klip

Research Group

Project leaders:
Professor J.A.E. Vervaele and Professor A.H. Klip

Project staff:
Dr A. Berg, M. Dane and Dr O.J.D.M.L. Jansen

Willem Pompe Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology
Centre for Enforcement of European Law, Law Faculty, University of Utrecht
Contents

Preface v

1. Introduction 1
   A.H. Klip and J.A.E. Vervaele
   1.1 General context of research 1
   1.2 Scope of survey and definition of the problem 2
   1.3 Methodology, composition of survey group and justification 5

2. Supranational rules governing cooperation in administrative and criminal matters 7
   A.H. Klip and J.A.E. Vervaele
   2.1 Rules and institutional context 7
      2.1.1 International law 7
      2.1.2 European Union law 8
   2.2 Mutual administrative assistance within the European Union 9
      2.2.1 Introduction: historical development 9
      2.2.2 Mutual administrative assistance as a concept 11
      2.2.3 Horizontal mutual administrative assistance in customs and agricultural matters 13
      2.2.4 Horizontal mutual administrative assistance in tax matters 19
      2.2.5 Vertical cooperation in tax and customs matters: the position of the European Commission 23
   2.3 Cooperation in criminal matters within the European Union 28
      2.3.1 International mutual assistance in criminal matters: a historical survey 28
      2.3.2 Mutual assistance in criminal matters as a concept 33
      2.3.3 The 1959 European mutual assistance convention and the Protocol 36
      2.3.4 Schengen and the Convention applying the Schengen Agreement 36
      2.3.5 Third Pillar cooperation 37
      2.3.6 Treaty cooperation along the dividing line between criminal law and other areas of law 39
   2.4 Transition between types of cooperation in the case of transnational cooperation 46
CONTENTS

Country analyses

3. The Netherlands
   N.M. Dane

   3.1 Introduction and scope 49
   3.2 Tax, customs and agriculture: national anti-fraud measures 49
      3.2.1 Formal sources of law: substantive legislation, enforcement legislation and case law 49
      3.2.2 Structure of organisation 59
      3.2.3 Division of jurisdiction for administrative and criminal law enforcement 63
      3.2.4 Instruments: control, investigation and prosecution 67
      3.2.5 Judicial and extrajudicial disposal 85
      3.2.6 Duty of secrecy – disclosure of information between tax authorities and judicial authorities 89
      3.2.7 Rules of evidence: means of evidence, evidential value and use of evidence 91
   3.3 Taxation, customs and agriculture: transnational anti-fraud measures 93
      3.3.1 Formal sources of law: horizontal and vertical cooperation 93
      3.3.2 Structure of organisation for cooperation 101
      3.3.3 Powers to cooperate 105
      3.3.4 Exceptions to cooperation (grounds for refusal) 108
      3.3.5 Information provided for specific purposes 110
      3.3.6 Legal protection 111
      3.3.7 Use of evidence 113

4. Germany
   O.J.D.M.L. Jansen

   4.1 Introduction 115
   4.2 Tax, customs and agriculture 117
      4.2.1 Formal sources of law: substantive legislation, enforcement legislation and case law 117
      4.2.2 Structure of organisation 126
      4.2.3 Instruments: control, investigation and prosecution 130
      4.2.4 Extrajudicial disposal 140
      4.2.5 Judicial disposal 143
      4.2.6 Una via and cumulation 151
      4.2.7 Duty of secrecy 160
      4.2.8 Rules of evidence 163
   4.3 Transnational anti-fraud measures 168
      4.3.1 Horizontal transnational anti-fraud measures 168
      4.3.2 Vertical transnational cooperation 180
5. France

J.A.E. Vervaele

5.1 Introduction: Cohabitation à la française?

5.2 Tax, customs and agriculture: national anti-fraud measures

5.2.1 Formal sources of law: substantive legislation, enforcement legislation and case law

5.2.2 Structure of organisation

5.2.3 Instruments: control, investigation and prosecution

5.2.4 Extrajudicial disposal

5.2.5 Judicial disposal

5.2.6 Una via and cumulation

5.2.7 Duty of secrecy – disclosure of information between tax authorities, customs authorities and judicial authorities

5.2.8 Rules of evidence: means of evidence, evidential value and use of evidence

5.3 Taxation, customs and agriculture: transnational anti-fraud measures

5.3.1 Horizontal transnational anti-fraud measures

5.3.2 Vertical transnational cooperation

6. England and Wales

A.J. Berg

6.1 Introduction

6.2 Tax, customs and agriculture: national anti-fraud measures

6.2.1 Formal sources of law: substantive legislation, enforcement legislation and case law

6.2.2 Structure of organisation

6.2.3 Instruments: control, investigation, prosecution and trial

6.2.4 Extrajudicial disposal

6.2.5 Judicial disposal

6.2.6 Una via and cumulation

6.2.7 Duty of secrecy – disclosure of information between tax authorities, customs authorities and judicial authorities

6.2.8 Rules of evidence: means of evidence and evidential value

6.3 Taxation, customs and agriculture: transnational anti-fraud measures

6.3.1 Horizontal cooperation

6.3.2 Vertical cooperation

6.3.3 Conclusion

7. Comparative law conclusions

A.H. Klip and J.A.E. Vervaele

7.1 Supranational rules for cooperation in administrative matters and in criminal matters