Contents

Contributors
Acronyms
Acknowledgements

INTRODUCTION

1. Constitutionalism in Africa: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow
   J. Oloka-Onyango
   1

PART I: CONSTITUTIONALISM IN AFRICA: NEW CHALLENGES, NEW OPPORTUNITIES

2. Constitutional Change and Cultural Engineering: Africa's Search for New Directions
   Ali A. Mazrui
   18

3. Language and Politics: Towards a new Lexicon of African Constitutionalism
   Anthonia Kalu
   37

4. Pan Africanism and Constitutionalism
   Tajudeen Abdul Raheem
   52

PART II: ETHNICITY, IDENTITY AND THE ROLE OF CIVIL SOCIETY

5. Culture, Ethnicity and Citizenship: Reflections on Senegal and Rwanda
   Bibiane Gahamanyi-Mbaye
   66

   Peter Mukidi Walubiri
   83

7. Ethnicity and Constitutionalism in Post-Genocide Rwanda
   Jean Marie Kamatali
   103

8. Constitutions, Law and Civil Society: Discourses on the Legitimacy of People's Power
   Willy Mutunga
   129
PART III: GENDER STRUGGLES IN THE CONTEXT OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM

9. Culture, Gender and Constitutional Restructuring in Nigeria
   Charmaine Pereira

10. Equality, Discrimination and Constitutionalism in Muslim Africa
    Ola Abou Zeid

11. Women, Politics and Gender Politiking: Questions from Kenya
    Kivutha Kibwana

    Sylvia Tamale

PART IV: BEYOND THE HORIZON: TOWARDS A NEW AFRICAN CONSTITUTION

13. Constitution Making in Eritrea: Democratic Transition through Popular Participation
    Bereket Habte Selassie

14. The National Conference as a New Mode of Constitutionalism
    Aminata Diaw

15. The Challenges of Constitution-Making and Implementation in Uganda
    Benjamin J. Odoki

16. Ruled from the Grave: Challenging Antiquated Constitutional Doctrines and Values in Commonwealth Africa
    Grace Patrick Tumwine-Mukubwa

17. Breaking the Barriers: Radical Constitutionalism in the New African Century
    Makau Mutua

18 Towards the Future: Confronting Myriad Constitutional Challenges
    J. Oloka-Onyango

Index

iv.