Contents

Chapter 1. Introduction, 3

Chapter 2. Traditional Criteria of Tax Equity, 12
   I. Political Morality in Tax Policy: Fairness, 12
   II. Vertical Equity: The Distribution of Tax Burdens, 13
   III. The Benefit Principle, 16
   IV. Ability to Pay: Endowment, 20
   V. Ability to Pay: Equal Sacrifice, 24
   VI. Ability to Pay as an Egalitarian Idea, 28
   VII. The Problem of Everyday Libertarianism, 31
   VIII. Horizontal Equity, 37

Chapter 3. Economic Justice in Political Theory, 40
   I. Political Legitimacy, 40
   II. Consequentialism and Deontology, 42
   III. Public Goods, 45
   IV. Benefits for Individuals, 48
   V. Efficiency and Utilitarianism, 50
   VI. Distributive Justice, Fairness, and Priority to the Worst Off, 53
VII. Equality of Opportunity, 56
VIII. Legitimate Means and Individual Responsibility, 58
  IX. Rewards and Punishments, 60
  X. Liberty and Libertarianism, 63
XI. The Moral Significance of the Market, 66
XII. Personal Motives and Political Values:
    The Moral Division of Labor, 70
XIII. Conclusion, 73

Chapter 4. Redistribution and Public Provision, 76
  I. Two Functions of Taxation, 76
  II. Paying for Public Goods, 79
  III. Which Goods Are Public?, 86
  IV. Redistribution, 88
  V. Transfer or Provision?, 90
  VI. Public Duties, 93
  VII. Conclusion, 94

Chapter 5. The Tax Base, 96
  I. Efficiency and Justice, 96
  II. Outcomes, not Burdens, 98
  III. The Consumption Base and Fairness to Savers, 99
  IV. Fairness as Equal Liberty, 103
  V. Desert and the Accumulation of Capital:
     The “Common Pool”, 109
  VI. Wealth and Welfare, 112
  VII. Wealth and Opportunity, 119
VIII. Endowment and the Value of Autonomy, 121
  IX. Exclusions and Credits, 125
  X. Transitions, 128

Chapter 6. Progressivity, 130
  I. Graduation, Progression, Incidence, and Outcomes, 130
  II. Assessment of Outcomes, 132
  III. Optimal Taxation, 135
  IV. Tax Reform, 139
Chapter 7. Inheritance, 142
   I. The "Death Tax", 142
   II. The Tax Base of the Donee, 145
   III. No Deduction for Donors, 148
   IV. Details and Objections, 150
   V. Equal Opportunity and Transfer Taxation, 154
   VI. Conclusion, 159

Chapter 8. Tax Discrimination, 162
   I. Justifying Differential Treatment, 162
   II. An Example: The Marriage Penalty, 166
   III. Incentive Effects and Arbitrariness, 169

Chapter 9. Conclusion: Politics, 173
   I. Theory and Practice, 173
   II. Justice and Self-Interest, 177
   III. Plausible Policies, 181
   IV. Effective Moral Ideas, 188

Notes, 191

References, 209

Index, 221