Darker Legacies of Law in Europe

The Shadow of National Socialism and Fascism over Europe and its Legal Traditions

EDITED BY

Christian Joerges
and
Navraj Singh Ghaleigh

WITH A PROLOGUE BY MICHAEL STOLLEIS
AND AN EPILOGUE BY JHH WEILER

HART PUBLISHING
OXFORD AND PORTLAND, OREGON
2003
CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements ix
List of Contributors xiii

Prologue: Reluctance to Glance in the Mirror. The Changing Face of German Jurisprudence after 1933 and post-1945
Michael Stolleis 1

Part I: Continuity and Rupture
1. The Problem of Perceptions of National Socialist Law or: Was there a Constitutional Theory of National Socialism?
Oliver Lepsius 19

2. Looking into the Brightly Lit Room: Braving Carl Schmitt in ‘Europe’
Navraj Singh Ghaleigh 43

Part II: The Era of National Socialism and Fascism
3. The Fascist Theory of Contract
Pier Giuseppe Monateri and Alessandro Somma 55

4. ‘Spheres of Influence’ and ‘Völkisch’ Legal Thought: Reinhard Höhn’s Notion of Europe
Ingo J Hueck 71

5. ‘The outsider does not see all the game . . .’: Perceptions of German Law in Anglo-American Legal Scholarship, 1933–1940
David Fraser 87

6. ‘A Distorted Image of Ourselves’: Nazism, ‘Liberal’ Societies and the Qualities of Difference
Laurence Lustgarten 113

Part III: Continuity and Reconfiguration
7. Carl Schmitt’s Europe: Cultural, Imperial and Spatial, Proposals for European Integration, 1923–1955
John P McCormick 133

8. Culture and the Rationality of Law from Weimar to Maastricht
J Peter Burgess 143

9. Europe a Großraum? Shifting Legal Conceptualisations of the Integration Project
Christian Joerges 167
Contents

10. From Großraum to Condominium—A Comment
   Neil Walker 193

11. Formalism and Anti-Formalism in French and German Judicial Methodology
   Vivian Grosswald Curran 205

12. Judicial Methodology and Fascist and Nazi Law
   Matthias Mahlmann 229

   James Q Whitman 243

14. On Fascist Honour and Human Dignity: A Sceptical Response
   Gerald L Neuman 267

15. Corporatist Doctrine and the ‘New European Order’
   Luca Nogler 275

Part IV: Responses to National Socialism and Fascism in National Legal Cultures

16. The German Impact on Fascist Public Law Doctrine—Costantino Mortati’s Material Constitution
   Massimo La Torre 305

17. Mortati and the Science of Public Law: A Comment on La Torre
   Giacinto Della Cananea 321

18. From Republicanism to Fascist Ideology under the Early Franquismo
   Agustin José Menéndez 337

   Alexander Somek 361

   Epilogue
   JHH Weiler 389

Index 403