Contents

List of illustrations  vi
Acknowledgments  ix
List of abbreviations  xi

Introduction  1

PART ONE: THE WORLD OF BELIEF
1 The use and value of Greek legal documents  12
2 Roman perceptions of Roman tablets: aspects and associations  21
3 The Roman tablet: style and language  44
4 Recitation from tablets  73
5 Tablets and efficacy  91

PART TWO: THE EVOLUTION OF PRACTICE
6 Roman tablets in Italy (AD 15–79)  125
7 Roman tablets and related forms in the Roman provinces (30 BC–AD 260)  169
8 Tablets and other documents in court to AD 400  216
9 Documents, jurists, the emperor, and the law (AD 200–AD 535)  250
Conclusion  294

References  299
Index  341
Illustrations

1. Phase 1 Campanian wooden document: simple diptych. page 128
2. Phase 2 Campanian wooden document: doubled diptych. 129
3. Phase 3 Campanian wooden document: doubled diptych with sulcus. 130
4. Phase 4 Campanian wooden document: triptych. 131
5. Phase 5 Campanian wooden document: pertusa triptych. 132
6. Physical forms of formal procedural acts and official copies from first-century AD Campania. 147
7. Physical forms of formal financial documents from first-century AD Campania. 148
8. Physical forms of chirograph documents from first-century AD Campania. 153
9. Papyrus double-document. 189