Principles of the Ethics of Legal Profession in India
(Accountancy for Lawyers and Bench-Bar Relations including Contempt of Court)

Dr. Anirudh Prasad
M.A. (Eng. Lit.) Sahityalankar, LL.M., Ph.D. (Law)
Professor & Head, Department of Law
Ex-Dean, Faculty of Law
D.D.U. Gorakhpur University
Gorakhpur-273009

University Book House Pvt. Ltd.
Jaipur (Raj.)
CONTENTS

PREFACE

PART-ONE
Basic Postulates of the Administration of Justice

Chapter-1 : Image and Wheels of Justice 1-19

(I) Image of Justice 1
   (i) Blindfoldness 1
   (ii) Sword in one Hand of the Goddess 2
   (iii) Balance with Lifted Scales 3
   (iv) What does Goddess of Justice Communicate through her Image? 4

(II) Wheels of the Chariot of Justice 4
   (A) Bench 4
      (1) Judges in the Image of Justice 4
      (2) Judges should Imbibe Fairness 5
      (3) Judges to be Above Suspicion 5
         * On top a lonely Judge 5
      (4) Dress of a Judge 5
      (5) Judges should Search the Truth 6
      (6) Judges should Constantly remind of their Duties on the High Seat 6
      (7) Judicial Norms and Decorum to be Maintained by Judges 7
      (8) Integrity and Courage on the Bench 8
      (9) Once a Judge always and every where a Judge. 11
   (B) Bar 12
      (1) Act and Plead 15
      (2) Dress of Advocates 17

PART-TWO
Historical Evolution and Professionalisation of Legal Profession

Chapter-2 : Historical Evolution of Legal Profession 20-35

I- Legal Profession in Ancient India 20
II- Position of Legal Profession in Muslim India 23
III- Legal Profession During the British Regime; 25
   An attempt Toward Professionalisation
   (i) English Background of Legal Profession 25
   (ii) Evolution of the Indian bar on British Patterns 26
   (iii) Position of Legal Profession during the Mayor's Court Era. 26
   (iv) Position of Legal Profession during the Supreme Court Era (1774-1861) 27
   (v) Position of Legal Profession in the Mofussil Courts and its regulation through Bengal regulation 28
   (vi) Regulation of Legal Profession through Legal Practitioners Acts. 30
   (vii) Impact of the High Courts, Act on legal profession. 34

Chapter- 3 : March Towards Unification and Autonomy of Legal Profession 36-49

I- Indian Bar Committee, 1923 37
II- Indian Bar Council Act, 1926 38
III- All Indian Bar Committee, 1951 40
IV- Unified Bar : The felt necessity of the time 43
V- 14 th Report of the Law Commission 43
VI- Advocates Act, 1961 45
   (a) Provisions Strengthening unified bar 45
      (i) Limiting Advocacy to only one Class of Persons 45
      (ii) Right of Advocate to Practice 45
      (iii) Common Rolls of Advocates 45
   (b) Organisation of Bar on All India Basis 45
   (c) Provisions ensuring Autonomy of the Bar 46
      (i) Constitution of the Bar-Councils and Election of their Chairmen. 46
      (ii) Admission and Disciplinary Actions. 47
      (iii) Regulation of Legal Education 49

PART-THREE
Position of Legal Profession and Necessity of Professional Ethics

Chapter-4 : Image/Position of Legal Profession in Society 50-72

Contradictory Opinions about the Image of Legal Profession 50
I- Advocacy is a Profession not a Business 53
   (i) Special Preparation or Training 54
   (ii) A Clearly defined and Comparatively Permanent Membership. 54
(iii) Maintenance of Certain Standards-Intellectual and Ethical, for the Dignity of Profession 54
(iv) The Acceptance of the Service Motive 55
  (a) Privilege Attached to the Profession 55
    (i) Profession not to be Treated as Commercial Activity 55
    (ii) Lawyer Alone Has Right to Plead and Practice Law 56
  (iii) Exemption from Arrest 56
  (iv) Privilege from Serving as Juror 56
  (v) Over all Privileged Position 56
(b) Liability attached to the legal profession 56
  (i) Liability Relating to Fixation of a Fee 56
  (ii) No Advertisement 56
  (iii) Duty to Render Legal Aid to Poor 57
  (iv) Duty of an Advocate to Impart Training to New Entrants Free of Cost. 57

II- Legal Profession as a Learned, Noble and Dignified Profession 58
  (a) Learned Profession 58
  (b) Dignity and Nobility of Profession 59
  (c) Image of Legal Profession in Society 61

III- Deterioration in Image of Legal Profession in Independent India 63
  1. Ill Equiped Law Colleges 64
  2. Over Crowded Bar 65
  3. Lack of Training of New Entrants 65
  4. Monopolistic Bar 66
  5. Apathy of Lawyers Towards Development Problems 66
  6. Lack of Social Service Mission on the Part of Lawyer. 66
  7. Tendency in some of Lawyers to Convert Legal Profession into a Trade. 67
  8. Prevalance of Misuse within the Profession 68
  9. Unbecoming behaviour of Lawyers 69
  10. Delay in Justice 69
  11. Over all Disgusting Image 69

IV- Role of Lawyers in the Society 70

Chapter 5 : Graceful Advocacy and The Necessity of The Professional Ethics 73-85

(A) The Art of Advocacy 73
  1. Honesty 74
  2. Courage 75
  3. Industry 75
  4. Wit 76
5. Eloquence 76
6. Judgment 76
7. Fellowship 76
8. Tact 76

(B) Professional Ethics 78
   (a) Nature of Professional Ethics and the Problem 79
       of the Code of Ethics
   (b) Advantages of having a Codified Professional Ethics 83
   (c) Professional Ethics Contains Certain rules of Conduct 84

PART- FOUR
Professional Ethics and Issues Arising Therefrom-I

Chapter 6: Bench-Bar Relationship-I: General Study 86-106

General Study 86
Advocate's Duty to the Court 87
Bench-Bar Relationship 88

(A) Duties of Judges towards the Advocates 90
1. Duty to allow Arguments Uninterruptedly 90
2. Judges should extend their helping and Appreciative 91
   Hands towards beginners at the Bar
3. Judges should Pay Equal Attention to all Lawyers 92
   Irrespective of their Position
4. Bench should support and Ensure the Independence 92 of the Bar.
5. Fairness on the part of Judge 92

(B) Duty of the Bar towards the Bench 94
1. The Bar owes a duty towards Assuring the Confidence 95 in Justice itself.
2. Duty of the bar to the Bench to Maintain its Honour 95 and Dignity
3. An Advocate should extend full co-operation to the bench 97
4. An Advocate should not inflict imputation against the bench 98
5. An Advocate should present everything in open court 99
6. Advocate not to show over reaction against prisiding judge 99
7. An Advocate should be trust worthy and he should not 100 try to mislead the court.
8. An Advocate should avoid any act which lowers 100 confidence in the administration of justice.
9. An Advocate should appear and behave like a thorough 101
   gentleman in the court
10. Respect for address to Judges 101

(C) Crack in Bench Bar Relations 102

(D) Suggestions to Improve Bench Bar Relationship. 105
(1) Purpose and Meaning of Contempt of Court
(2) Contempt of Court by Judges, lawyers and State etc.

I. Contempt of Court by Judges, Magistrates or other persons acting judicially.
   (a) Contempt of court by judges of subordinate courts
      (i) Contempt of own Court by a subordinate court judge
      (ii) Contempt of other courts committed by subordinat court judges
   (b) Do Justices of the High Courts or the Supreme Court Commit Contempt of Court?
   (c) How to ensure judicial accountability?

II. Contempt of Court by Advocates

   (A) Contempt Committed by an Advocate in face of the Court.
      (i) Imputation of bias or partiality against the prising judicial officer of the court
      (ii) using derogatory language against the presiding officers of the Courts.
      (iii) Making Scandalous statement
      (iv) wild allegations made in the application for the transfer of the case
      (v) Refusal to answer the questions put by the court, the reatening and overawing the court
      (vi) Mud slinging against advocates and the court
      (vii) Intolerably unbecoming behaviour, of advocate like hurling shoe at the judge or slaping
      (viii) Filing false affidavit in the Court
   (B) Indirect or Constructive Contempt of Court Committed by Advocates
   (C) What does not amount to Contempt?
   (D) Does strike in response to Bar-Council/Bar Associatin amount to contempt?

III. Contempt of Court by State, Corporate bodies and their Officers.

IV. Nature and Extent of Punishment of a Contemner advocate

V. Nature of Contempt of Court vis-a-vis Professional Misconduct
VI. Power of the Superior Courts to punish for a contempt of the Subordinate Courts or High Court. 148

VII. Can an alleged contemner insist on calling the judge concerned as a witness? 150

VIII. Safeguards available to contemner advocate 151

1) Apology 151

2) Procedural safeguards 153

(a) Safeguards in cases of contempt committed in the face of court 154

(b) Safeguards in case of contempt committed outside the court. 155

PART-FIVE

Professional Ethics and Lawyers-client Relationship

Chapter 8: Relationship between and an Advocate and his Client and issues arising therefrom 159-182

(A) Code of Conduct 159

(B) Lawyers-Client relationship 162

Fiduciary nature of relationship between an advocate and his Client 162

(a) A Client is free to withdraw his brief from the lawyers at any time 162

(b) Client's right to have the service of advocate at relevant time in the court. 163

(c) Duty of an advocate to return papers/documents on demand of the Client. 164

(d) An advocate can not delegate his duties to some other advocate without the consent of the Client. 165

(e) Advocate as trustee of the clients money 166

(f) Misappropriation of Court fee taken from client is a grave misconduct. 169

(g) Advocate not to purchase the property relating to litigation or accept share in actionable claims. 169

(h) Advocate to maintain strict confidentiality 171

(i) Advocate not to withdraw from engagement and liable to return money in excess of fees earned or no work done. 173

(j) An advocate owes to the client complete fidelity to his interest. 174

(C) Duty of the Advocate to uphold the Interest of the Client. 177

(D) What an Advocate should not do for his Client? 180

(E) Advocate is a representative of his Client not a delegate 182
Chapter 9: Issues Relating to Lawyers-Client Relationship 183-216

(I) Refusal of brief by an advocate 183

(II) Advocates' obligation to defend a Client whom he knows to be guilty.
   (a) Supreme test problem: Duty towards Client versus Counsel's conscience/Duty towards justice itself 185
   (b) Lawyer is not mere mouth piece of his Client 186
   (c) Is advocate duty bound to defend a known guilty Client? 187

(III) Lawyer's duty where silence results into Miscarriage of justice 194
Should an advocate refuse to defend an accused charged with anti-national activities. 195

(IV) Advocate's Right to Fee 196
   1. Fixation of fee 198
      Problem arising out of contractual nature of advocate-client relationship. 199
      1. Fixation of exorbitant fees 200
      2. Fixation of contingent fees/sharing in gains of litigation. 201
      3. Champertous Bargain 203
      4. Fixation of lump sum fees 204
      5. Should the settlement of fees be reduced into writing? 205

(V) should a counsel accept presents from a successful Client? 205

(VI) Consel's right to sue for fees 205

(VII) Advocate's lien for fees 208

(VIII) Taking the Clients's signature on blank paper. 210

(IX) should Lawyers resort to boycott or strike? 210
   (a) Opinions of the Inquiry commission and senior lawyers 213
   (b) Judicial opinions 214
   (c) Judicial discouragement of Strike 216

Chapter 10: Accountancy for Lawyers 217-229

(A) Imperative of Maintenance of Account by An Advocate 217

(B) Accounting
   Need 220

(C) Accountship—explained 221

(D) Accounting System 221

(E) Accounts and Recording Mechanism 222

(F) Rules for Recording 223

(G) Books of Accounts 224
   (i) Receipt and Payment Account 224
   (ii) Ledger 224
   (iii) Income and Expenditure Account 225
       Exercises 226
   (iv) Balance Sheet 228
       Special Notes 229
PART-SIX
Professional Ethics and Advocates Duties Towards Colleagues and Others

Chapter 11: Professional Ethics and Advocates Duties To Colleagues and others

I. Advocate's duty to Colleagues
a. Nature of rules of Conduct
b. Senior-Junior relationship
c. should a lawyer condemn or accept a brief against a member of Bar?
d. should Lawyers advertise or Solicit?
e. is advertisement of any kind prohibited?
f. What constitutes not amount to an advertisement?
g. Should Lawyers depend on or use toutism?

II. Advocates duty to opponents
1. No under hand dealing
2. No foul game
3. No attempt to take advantage of the weakness of the opposite party
4. No unnecessary interruption of opponent
5. Honour the legitimate promises made to opposite party

III. Advocates Duties Towards Witnesses

IV. Advocates Duties to Public at Large

V. Can a Lawyer seek other Employments?

PART-SEVEN
Professional or other Misconduct, Authorities and Procedure, Standard of Proof and Quantum of Punishment etc.

Chapter 12: Professional or other Misconduct

i. Misconduct Explained

ii. Misconduct Need not be Limited to the Species of Professional Misconduct

iii. Misconduct Need Not be Restricted to Conducts Involving Moral Turpitude

iv. Instances of Professional Misconduct
(a) Conduct Involving Financial Misappropriation
(b) Withholding of papers
(c) Suppression of Material Facts
(d) Misuse of Signed Document or Forgery
(e) Purchase of Property under Litigation
(f) Representing Conflicting Interests
(g) Withholding Decretal Amount
(h) Dereliction from Duty Beyond Services Rendred
(i) Contingent Fees and Fees Beyond Services Rendered 258
(j) False Certification/Fraudulent acts 258
(k) Solicitation and Advertisement 258
(l) Criminal Conduct of Advocate or Having Firearms. 259
(m) Seeking Money From client to Bribe the Judge. 259
(n) Carrying on other Business 259
(o) Cheating the Client 260
(p) Instigation of Prosecution witness to change the statement. 260
(q) Miscellaneous Illustrations 260

v. Illustrations of Other Misconducts 261
vi. Conducts Not Amounting to Professional or other misconduct 263
vii. Disciplinary Committee's Approach in case of Professional or other Misconduct. 265

Chapter 13: Authorities And Procedures To Deal With Professional Misconduct And Remedies Against Their Orders

I. State Bar Council And Its Disciplinary Committee 268
 A- State Bar Councils 269
 B- Disciplinary Committee of the State Bar Concil 272

II. The Bar Council of India and Its Disciplinary Committees 277
 A. Bar Council of India. 277
 B. Disciplinary Committee of the Bar Council of India 278
 C. Remedies Against the Orders of Punishment 279
 1. Review by the Disciplinary Committee 279
 2. Appeal to the Bar Council of India 280
 3. Relief by way of Stay 285
 4. Appeal to the Supreme Court of India 285
 5. Grounds of Interference by the Supreme Court 287
    (i) Improper finding 287
    (ii) Violation of Statutory Requirements 288
    (iii) Error on the Face 288
    (iv) Unfounded and Perverse Finding 289
    (v) Ludicrously Paltry Punishment 289
    (vi) Reduction in Punishment in view of Indexperience of Advocate 290
    (vii) Casual And Unsatisfactory Approach 290
    (viii) Disproportionate Punishment 291
    (ix) Professional Misconduct Taken in Lighter Vein 292

Chapter 14: Standard of Proof And Quantum of Punishment 293-308

(A) Standard of Proof 293
 (i) Burden of Proof 294
 (ii) Proof Beyond Reasonable Doubt 294
 (iii) Benefit of Doubt to be Given to Deliquent Advocate 295
(B) Quantum of Punishment

(i) Commensurate Punishment
   (a) Reprimand
   (b) Suspension From Practice
   (c) Punishment for More Grave Misconduct
   (d) Misconduct Attracting most Sever Punishment for fraudulent Acts

(e) Reformatory and Correctional Approach to Punishment
   (1) Advocate’s Assurance of Good Behaviour
   (2) Youngness of Advocate
   (3) Handicap
   (4) Apology
   (5) Good Record
   (6) Good Gesture
   (7) Cumulated Factors

Chapter 15: Critical Appraisal of Provisions Relating to Professional Ethics

I. Advocates Act, 1961
   1. Have the Bar Councils Been Able to Discipline Advocates through their Disciplinary Committees with Full objectivity? 310
   2. Has the Division of Advocates Between Senior and other Advocates Worked Well? 313
   3. Has the Act Been Able to Keep Unwanted Elements out of Profession? 314
   4. Some Recent Problems 315
   5. Non enforcement of Section 30 of the Act. 315

II. Code of Professional Ethics 315

III. Contempt of Court And Bench-Bar Relations 318

IV. Judicial outlook And Uncertainty 319

Appendix

Decisional Law on Professional Ethics

Appendix-1 Leading Decisions of the Bar Council and the Supreme Court 320-369
Appendix-2 Extract From the Advocates Act, 1961 370-389
Appendix-3 Extract from the Bar Council of India Rules, 1965 390-411
Appendix-4 Extract From the Supreme Court Rules, 1966 412-413
Appendix-5 The Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 414-426
Appendix-6 International Code of Ethics 427-429
Appendix-7 A’ Code of Ethics For Higher Judiciary 430-435
Appendix-8 New Professional Standards in the United States. 436-438
Appendix-9 A Model Syllabai on Professional Ethics. 439-442
Appendix-10 Model Objective Questions 443-459