Torture and Organised Violence
Contributions to a Professional
Human Rights Response

Edited by
Peter Berliner, Julio G. Arenas & Jan Ole Haagensen

Dansk psykologisk Forlag
Contents

Torture and Organised Violence in a Global Context 7

Peter Berliner, Jan Ole Haagensen, Elisabeth Naima Mikkelsen & Julio G. Arenas

1. Chronic Pain in Survivors of Torture – Psyche or Soma? 31

Stine Amris

2. Psychotherapy with Torture Survivors: Solution Oriented Methods 70

Peter Berliner, Lone Jacobsen, Pernille Ianev & Elisabeth Naima Mikkelsen

Stephen Regel & Peter Berliner

4. Impact Assessment in Rehabilitation of Torture Survivors – A long-term research programme based on a global multi-centre study design. Part I: Theoretical considerations 124

Stine Amris & Julio G. Arenas

5. Impact Assessment in Rehabilitation of Torture Survivors – A long-term research programme based on a global multi-centre study design. Part II: An exploratory study of outcome of torture rehabilitation at specialised centres from the clients' and health professionals' perspectives 155

Stine Amris & Julio G. Arenas
6. Impact Assessment in Rehabilitation of Torture Survivors
Part III: Anthropological reflections and perspectives  206

Thomas Pedersen

7. Practice, Power and Development – Aspects of psycho-social rehabilitation in post-conflict societies  245

Jan Ole Haagensen

8. Decentering Struggle: Traumatizing Central Americans  260

Henrik Ronsbo

9. Challenges in Psychosocial Interventions in the Aftermath of War and Political Violence  276

Inger Agger

10. Counseling and Support – Capacity building in post conflict areas  299

Ane-Grethe Madsen

11. Documenting Torture – Methods and concepts  324

Lise Worm

12. Positioning and organisation of violence
Organised violence against inmates in prisons in Honduras
An analysis of testimonies  339

Juan Almendares, Maritza O'hara, Alba de Mejía, Brenda Morales, Peter Berliner, Ana Maria Torres & Pernille Ianev

13. Social Trauma in the Philippines  358

Ernesto Anasarias, Peter Berliner, Pernille Ianev & Elisabeth Naima Mikkelsen

14. Traumatised Refugee Families – The child’s perspective  393

Edith Montgomery