Contents

Introduction: Mythohistorical Interventions at the Intersection of American Studies and Chicana/o Studies 1

1. Locating the Mythohistorical: Three Tales in the Struggle for Hegemony 33

2. Hero Making in El Movimiento: Reies López Tijerina and the Chicano Nationalist Imaginary 71

3. Of Mothers and Revolucionarias: Movement Chicanas Fashioning a Feminism of Their Own 105

4. Queer Genealogies: Chicana Lesbian Feminism and the Postmovement Era 149

Conclusion: Echoes of El Movimiento and Other Mythohistorical Interventions 187

Acknowledgments 197

Notes 201

Bibliography 229

Index 245