Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Sexing the Citizen 1

Faith Smith

Contemporary Package Deals

Buyers Beware, “Hoodwinking” on the Rise: Epistemologies of Consumption in Terry McMillan’s Caribbean 21

Patricia Saunders

Carmen Gillespie

Novel Insights: Sex Work, Secrets, and Depression in Angie Cruz’s Soledad 53

Donette Francis

Diasporic Citizenship

Against the Rules of Blackness: Hilton Als’s The Women and Jamaica Kincaid’s My Brother (Or How to Raise Black Queer Kids) 75

Rinaldo Walcott
Francophone Caribbean Women Writers: Rethinking Identity, Sexuality, and Citizenship
Odile Cazenave

Indian Nationalism and Female Sexuality: A Trinidadian Tale
Tejaswini Niranjana

Caribbean Migrations: Negotiating Borders
Evelyn O'Callaghan

Reflections on She Web
Susan Dayal

Desiring Subjects and Modernity

Threatening Sexual (Mis)Behavior: Homosexuality in the Penal Code Debates in Trinidad and Tobago, 1986
Yasmin Tambiah

Sexual Awakenings and the Malignant Fictions of Masculinity in Alfonso Cuáron’s Y tu mamá también
M. S. Worrell

Living and Loving: Emancipating the Caribbean Queer Citizen in Shani Mootoo’s Cereus Blooms at Night
Alison Donnell

Le Jeu de Qui? Sexual Politics at Play in the French Caribbean
Vanessa Agard-Jones

Reimagining Pastes and Futures

Our Imagined Lives
Tracy Robinson
Contents

New Citizens, New Sexualities:
Nineteenth-Century Jamettes
Rosamond S. King
214

Macocotte: An Exploration of Same-Sex Friendship in Selected Caribbean Novels
Antonia MacDonald-Smythe
224

What Is a Uma? Women Performing Gender and Sexuality in Paramaribo, Suriname
Omise’eke Natasha Tinsley
241

Colonial Girl: And What Would It Be Like
Michelle Cliff
251

Bibliography
257

Notes on Contributors
285

Index
289