Contents

Introduction: Sovereignty, Heterodoxy, and the Last Desperate Shibboleth of Caribbean Nationalism 1
LINDEN LEWIS

Part I: Neoliberalism and the Paradox of Sovereignty in the Caribbean

1 Class, Power, Sovereignty: Haiti before and after the Earthquake 17
ALEX DUPUY

HILBOURNE A. WATSON

3 The Dissolution of the Myth of Sovereignty in the Caribbean 68
LINDEN LEWIS

4 Dependent Capitalism and the Challenge to Democracy and Sovereignty in the Caribbean 88
ANTON L. ALLAHAR

Part II: Arrested Development and the Cultural Turn

5 The “Myth” of Development: The Case of Trinidad and Tobago 115
DAVE RAMSARAN

6 Paradoxical Sovereignty: Imagining Caribbean Futures 138
SILVIO TORRES-SAILLANT
Contents

7 Sovereignty/Intimacy: Political Openings in Contemporary Jamaica 165
DEBORAH A. THOMAS

Part III: Caribbean Futures: Democracy Imperiled

8 Curaçaoans on the Question of Home: The Lure of Autochthony and Its Alternatives 189
FRANCIO GUADELOUPE

9 Nonsovereign Futures? French Caribbean Politics in the Wake of Disenchantment 208
YARIMAR BONILLA

10 Jamaica on the Cusp of Fifty: Whither Nationalism and Sovereignty? 228
BRIAN MEEKS

Afterword 245
CARY FRASER

About the Contributors 249

Index 253