Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS
[ vii ]

INTRODUCTION
The Archipelago of New Security-State Uprisings
[ 1 ]

CHAPTER ONE
Mooring a New Global Order between Cairo and Rio de Janeiro
World Summits and Human-Security Laboratories
[ 39 ]

CHAPTER TWO
Policing the Perversions of Globalization
in Rio de Janeiro and Cairo
Emerging Parastatal Security Regimes Confront Queer Globalisms
[ 65 ]

CHAPTER THREE
Muhammad Atta’s Urbanism
Rescuing Islam, Saving Humanity, and Securing
Gender’s Proper Place in Cairo
[ 99 ]

CHAPTER FOUR
Saving the Cradle of Samba in Rio de Janeiro
Shadow-State Uprisings, Urban Infranationalisms, and the Racial Politics of Human Security
[ 139 ]
CHAPTER FIVE
Operation Princess in Rio de Janeiro
Rescuing Sex Slaves, Challenging the Labor-Evangelical Alliance, and Defining the Sexuality Politics of an Emerging Human-Security Superpower

CHAPTER SIX
Feminist Insurrections and the Egyptian Revolution
Harassing Police, Recognizing Classphobias, and Everting the Logics of the Human-Security State in Tahrir Square

CONCLUSION
The End of Neoliberalism?

NOTES
REFERENCES
INDEX