Table of contents

Kim Christiaens, Magaly Rodriguez Garcia and Idesbald Goddeeris
A Global Perspective on the European Mobilization for Chile (1970s-1980s) .... 7

Thomas C. Wright
Chilean Political Exile in Western Europe ....................................................... 47

Jan Eckel
Allende’s Shadow, Leftist Furor, and Human Rights: The Pinochet
Dictatorship in International Politics .............................................................. 67

Kim Christiaens
The Difficult Quest for Chilean Allies: International Labor Solidarity
Campaigns for Chile in the 1970s and 1980s .................................................. 93

Nuno Pereira
Switzerland: A Second Wave or the Decline of the ‘68 Movement? .............. 125

Shirin Hirsch
The United Kingdom: Competing Conceptions of Internationalism .............. 145

Georg Dufner
West Germany: Professions of Political Faith, the Solidarity Movement and New Left Imaginaries ..................................... 163

Nicolas Prognon
France: Welcoming Chilean Exiles, a Mark of the Resonance of the Unidad Popular in French Society? .................................................... 187

Kim Christiaens
Belgium: The Chilean Factor and the Changing Dimensions of Solidarity
Activism ........................................................................................................ 207

Monica Quirico and Valentine Lomellini
Italy: The ‘Chilean Lesson’ between the Legacy of the Struggle against Fascism and the Threat of New Authoritarian Shifts .................................. 239

Linda Heinonen
Finland: Popularizing Chile ........................................................................... 257
Jadwiga E. Pieper Mooney
East Germany: Chilean Exile and the Politics of Solidarity in the Cold War...... 275

James Mark and Bálint Tolmár
Hungary: Connecting the ‘Responsible Roads to Socialism’?
The Rise and Fall of a Culture of Chilean Solidarity, 1965-89 ......................... 301

Yulia Gradskova
The Soviet Union: ‘Chile is in Our Hearts.’ Practices of Solidarity between Propaganda, Curiosity, and Subversion.............................. 329

Contributors ........................................................................................................ 347

Illustrations ........................................................................................................ 351

Abbreviations ..................................................................................................... 353