List of Figures

Acknowledgements

Introduction: Virtual Orientalism in Brazilian Culture

1. Graphic Fictions of Japanese Immigration to Brazil: “Pop Cosmopolitan” Mobility and the Disjunctive Temporalities of Migration

2. Otaku Culture and the Virtuality of Immaterial Labor in Maurício de Sousa's Turma da Mônica Jovem

3. Ekphrastic Anxiety in Virtual Brazil: Photographing Japan in the Fiction of Alberto Renault

4. Paranoid Orientalism in Bernardo Carvalho’s O sol se põe em São Paulo

5. Paulo Leminski’s Haiku and the Disavowed Orientalism of the Poesia Concreta Project

Afterword

Notes

Works Cited

Index