Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xvi
Credits xvii

PART 1
CONTEXTS 1

1 The Immigration System Today 3
   I. Demographics, 3
   II. Public Attitudes, 4
   III. The Evolution of the Immigration Control System, 11
   IV. The Current Legal Admissions System, 13
   V. The 1996 Legislation: Strengthening Enforcement, 14
   VI. The 1997 Amnesty, 15

PART 2
THE COURTS AND IMMIGRATION 17

2 The Transformation of Immigration Law 19
   I. The Classical Conception of Immigration Law, 22
   II. Pressures for Change, 39
   III. The Communitarian Conception of Immigration Law, 54
   IV. The Future of Immigration Law, 67
   Conclusion, 81

3 Continuity and Change in the Courts: 1979–1990 82
   Summary of Major Findings, 85
   Conclusion, 86
PART 3
THE POLITICS OF IMMIGRATION

4 The Politics of Rapid Legal Change:
- Immigration Policy, 1980–1990
  - Introduction, 91
    1. Periodizing Immigration Reform: The 1980s, 96
    2. External Events, 100
    3. Political Entrepreneurship, 102
    4. The Changing Balance of Interests, 110
    5. Ideas, 128
  - Conclusion, 137

5 Reform Continues: 1990–1998

6 The Message of Proposition 187:
- Facing Up to Illegal Immigration
  1. Justice Brennan's Legacy, 149
  2. Why the Court May Turn, 151
  3. What Voters Were Saying, 154
  4. Do Outsiders Have Claims on America? 157
  5. Elusive Candor, 159

PART 4
CITIZENSHIP AND COMMUNITY

7 The Devaluation of American Citizenship
  1. The Equality Principle, 164
  2. The Due Process Principle, 167
  3. The Consent Principle, 168
  4. An Evaluation of Devaluation, 171

8 The Reevaluation of American Citizenship
  1. Citizenship in the International Domain, 179
  2. Citizenship in the Domestic Domain, 184
  4. A Brief Note on “Post-National Citizenship,” 202
  - Conclusion, 205

9 Consensual Citizenship