Table of Contents

Table of Articles ................................................................. IX
List of Contributors ............................................................ XIX
Preface ................................................................................. XXI

Part I  Introduction

1. Welfare State Expectations, Privatisation and Private Law ...... 3
   Thomas Wilhelmsson

Part II  Privatisation, Society and Law

   Kaarlo Tuori

3. After Privatisation? – The Many Autonomies of Private Law ... 51
   Gunther Teubner

4. Normative Patterns and the Normative Field: A Post-Liberal
   View on Law ................................................................. 83
   Anna Christensen

5. The Legal Profession in a Changing World ......................... 99
   Jørgen Dalberg-Larsen

Part III  Privatisation and Private Law Theory

6. The Lost Penny – Social Contract Law and Market Economy .. 117
   Udo Reifner
VI  From Dissonance to Sense

7.  The Crises of Private Law ........................................... 177
    William N.R. Lucy

Part IV Privatisation and Liability

    Thomas Wilhelmsson

9.  Private Law and Public Interests ............................... 253
    John Wightman

10. Can We, and Should We, Use Private Law as a Means of Regaining Governmental Provision of Services and Care for Citizens? ......................................................... 277
    Barbara Ann Hocking

11. Liability for Information in Private Law ....................... 301
    Juha Häyhä

Part V Privatisation and Contract

12. Contract in the New Public Sector ............................. 349
    Chris Willett

    Frey Nybergh

14. Contract Law, Discrimination and European Integration  ...... 405
    Dagmar Schiek

Part VI Privatisation and Credit

15. Whose Responsibility to Plan for Future Changes in Circumstances – Debtor, Creditor or the State? ................................. 437
    Geraint G. Howells

16. Bankruptcy and Consumer Credit in the Declining Welfare State ......................................................... 461
    Iain Ramsay
Part VII Privatisation and Environment

17. Damage, Uncertainty, and Risk: Trends in Environmental Liability
   Jenny Steele .................................................. 479

Part VIII Privatisation and Access to Justice

   Hans-W. Micklitz ............................................. 505

   Klaus Viitanen ................................................. 549

20. Social Rights and the Courts
    José Reinaldo de Lima Lopes ............................. 567

Part IX Epilogue

21. From Dissonance to Sense: Categories of Private and Public
    Samuli Hurri ................................................. 593