EU Committees: Social Regulation, Law and Politics

Edited by
CHRISTIAN JOERGES
and
ELLEN VOS

HART PUBLISHING
OXFORD – PORTLAND
1999
Contents

Foreword and Acknowledgements v
Abbreviations xv
Tables xvii

Section 1 Introduction

1 Bureaucratic Nightmare, Technocratic Regime and the Dream of Good Transnational Governance 3
CHRISTIAN JOERGES

1. Contextualising the Comitology Complex 3
2. Social Regulation and Internal Market Policy: Re-regulation and Re-politicisation 3
3. Legal and Institutional Options 7
3.1 Mutual Recognition Regulatory Competition 7
3.2 Agencies 8
3.3 Committees 8
4. A Contest or a Concert of Disciplines? From Cacophony to Polyphony 9
5. Institutional Conflicts and the Europeanisation of Administrative Practices 10
6. Comitology as Perceived by Political Science 13
7. Constitutionalising Committee Governance 15

2 EU Committees: the Evolution of Unforeseen Institutional Actors in European Product Regulation 19
ELLEN VOS

1. Introduction 19
2. The Birth of Committees 20
3. Classification of Committees 21
3.1 Binding Nature of the Consultation 21
3.2 Legal Basis 22
3.3 Functions 22
4. Institutional Challenges 23
4.1 Article 145 Third Indent and the 1987 Comitology Decision 23
4.1.1 Procedure I: the Advisory Committee Procedure 24
4.1.2 Procedure II: the Management Committee Procedure 24
4.1.3 Procedure III: the Regulatory Committee Procedure 25
Section 2 Institutional Controversies

3 Comitology and the European Commission
GIUSEPPE CIAVARINI AZZI
1. Introduction
2. The Consultative Committees Set up by the Commission
3. Comitology
4. Problems Faced by the European Parliament
5. A New Comitology Decision

4 Implementing Powers and Comitology
JEAN-PAUL JACQUÉ
1. Introduction
2. Implementation of Community Legislation
2.1 The Initial Position in the Treaty of Rome
2.2 Implementing Powers After the Single European Act
2.2.1 Assignment of Implementing Powers and their Extent
2.2.2 General Scope
Contents

3. The Comitology Procedures 63
4. Comitology Following the Treaty of Maastricht 67
4.1 Article 145 Third Indent EC 67
4.2 Institutional Dispute 68
4.3 The Modus Vivendi 68
5. Comitology Post-Amsterdam 69

5 Institutional Aspects of Comitology: Scenes From the Cutting Room Floor 71
KIERAN ST CLAIR BRADLEY
1. The Modus Vivendi: a Mess of Pottage? 71
2. The Difference between Comitology Procedures: II(b) or not II(b)? 76
3. Angelopharm: an End to Bald Assertions? 79
4. British Beef Certificates - “Best in the World!”: the Role of Scientific Committees 84
6. The Final Take 91

6 The BSE Crisis and the European Parliament 95
GRAHAM R CHAMBERS
1. Introduction 95
2. The Spread of BSE 96
3. The Impact of the BSE Crisis on the EU 97
4. BSE and Comitology 99
5. Reform of the Commission 104

Section 3 Comitology as an Administrative Task

7 Towards a Regulation of Transnational Governance?
Citizen’s Rights and the Reform of Comitology Procedures 109
RENAUD DEHOUSSE
1. Introduction 109
2. Regulation by Committees: Institutional Discourse and Political Reality 110
3. The Legitimacy of Comitology Procedures 112
4. The Supranational Avenue: Legislative Mandates and Parliamentary Control 117
5. The Transnational Avenue: Transparency, Openness and Proceduralisation 120
6. The Need for a “Soft” Proceduralisation
7. Conclusion: Comitology Paradoxes

8 Shared Governance and Enforcement of European Law: From Comitology to a Multi-level Agency Structure?
JOHN A E VERVAELE
1. Sovereignty and Enforcement
2. The Concept of Enforcement
3. Division of Legal Powers and Shared Governance
3.1. Case Law on Article 5 EC
3.2. Secondary Legislation
3.3. Levels of Enforcement
3.3.1 Elaboration of Common Regulatory Rules and Standards for Enforcement
3.3.2 Mutual Recognition of Enforcement Systems
3.3.3 Enforcement Co-operation
3.4. Enforcement Law in Practice
4. From Shared Governance to Network Co-operation in Action
5. Shared Governance and Network-building for the Enforcement of Community Law: Two Case Studies
5.1. Access to the Pharmaceutical Market
5.2. The Protection of the Financial Interests of the EU
5.2.1 The Normative Legal Framework
5.2.2 The Operational Co-operation: From Assessing Implementation to Operational Enforcement
6. Concluding Remarks

9 Towards a Legal Concept of the Network in European Standard-Setting
KARL-HEINZ LADEUR
1. Standards and the Transformation of the Common Knowledge Base
1.1 The Difficulties of “Harmonisation”
1.2 “Harmonisation” and the Heterogeneity of the Technological Evolution
2. Administrative Regulation and Co-operative Decision-making
2.1 Decision-making, Standards and Rules
2.2 Consensual Decision-making and the Transformation of Law
2.3 Technical Safety Law and the Changing Role of Organisations
3. From Experience to Experimentation with new Technological Options 158
4. Integrating Knowledge Generation into Decision-making 159
5. In Search of a New Procedural Concept of Public-Private Co-operation 161
   5.1 The Concept of “Network” and its Use in a Flexible Regulatory Approach 161
   5.2 The EC and Openness to Institutional Reforms 162
6. The “New Approach” and the Case for Differentiation 163
   6.1 Uniform Standards and their Heterogeneous Contexts 163
   6.2 The Necessity to Introduce more Variety into Standard-Setting 163
7. Transnational Networks as an Alternative to both Supranational and National Decision-making 164
   7.1 Shifting the Stress to Procedural and Methodological Criteria 164
   7.2 Variety, Competition and Comparison in European Standard-setting 166
8. “Co-operative Law” instead of Unification 167
9. Co-operative Learning in Transnational Networks 169

Section 4 Comitology in the Perception of Political Science

10 The European Regulation of Biotechnology by Polycratic Governance 173
   CHRISTINE LANDFRIED
   1. Introduction 173
   2. Complexity of Problems: Political and Technical Issues 175
      2.1 Definitions 175
      2.2 The Case of Genetically Modified Micro-organisms (GMMOs) and Novel Food 177
   3. Complexity of Elite-Behaviour: The Orientation Patterns of Members of the European Commission 182
   5 Conclusion 192

11 Bargaining, Arguing and Functional Differentiation of Decision-making: The Role of Committees in European Environmental Process Regulation 195
   THOMAS GEHRING
   1. Introduction 195
   2. The Influence of Committees in European Policy-Making 197
3. The Influence of an Advisory Expert Committee;
   the Case of the Expert Group on Drinking Water 199
4. Decision-making in Comitology Committees 204
4.1 The Drinking Water Committee 205
4.2 The Nitrates Committee 208
4.3 The Packaging Waste Committee 210
5. Informal Functions of Comitology Committees 213
6. Conclusion 192

12 The Comitology Challenge to Analytical Integration Theory 219
JÜRGEN NEYER
1. Introduction 219
2. Comitology and Political Science 220
2.1 Comitology an Intergovernmentalist Approach 221
2.2 Comitology in the Perspective of Supranational Administrationalism 222
3. Comitology as Political Administration 224
3.1 Comitology and Legitimate Governance 228
3.2 Practical Implications of a Deliberationist Approach to Comitology 232
4. Conclusions 236

13 Regulatory Oversight in Europe: The Case of Comitology 239
MICHELLE EGAN/DIETER WOLF
1. Introduction: Governance, Regulation and Control 239
2. Theoretical Perspectives on Regulation 242
2.1 Serving the Public Interest 242
2.2 Lobbying and Interest Group Approaches 245
2.3 Principals and Agents: Administrative Theories 247
3. Application of Regulatory Theories on Comitology: An Assessment 250
4. Conclusion 255

14 Comitology as a Research Subject: A New Legitimacy Mix? 259
WOLFGANG WESSELS
1. On the Joy and Privilege of a Commentator 259
2. On the Relevance of the Cases: In Search of a Typology for Committees 259
3. Comitology Committees in the Policy Cycle – Variations of the Research Focus 262
4. On the Relevance for Theories: the Constitutional Significance Revisited 264
5. Bibliographical Hints 268
Contents

Section 5 Comitology in the European Polity

15 The European Polity, Deadlock and Development 273
ADRIENNE HÉRITIER
1. The Policy Paradox 273
2. A Polity in Motion 274
3. Institutional-Constitutional Change as a Window of Opportunity 275
4. The Routine Interpenetration of Policy and Polity 276
5. Circumventing Deadlock: Policy-making by Subterfuge 276

16 The Constitutionalisation of European Administrative Law: Legal Oversight of a Stateless Internal Market 281
MICHELLE EVERSON
1. Introduction 281
2. The Emerging Internal Market Polity: Indeterminate and Pluralist “Socialisation” 283
2.1 The Internal Market Paradox 283
2.2 Committees, Agencies and Networks 285
2.3 The Socially-Embedded Market Polity 287
3. The Law of Administration: From State to Constitution to Stateless Constitution? 289
3.1 Transmission: A Dual Genesis in State and Constitution 289
3.2 Interest Representation: State and Constitution in Conflict 290
3.3 Normative Demands upon the Internal Market Polity 293
3.4 A Constitutionalised European Administrative Law? 295
4. Three “Constitutional” Models of the Internal Market Polity? 298
4.1 The Non-Majoritarian Model of Market Regulation 300
4.2 Deliberative Supranationalism: The European Experiment 302
4.3 Post-Modern Market Regulation: the Liberation of the “Private”? 304
5. The Administration of Deliberation? 305
6. Conclusion 308

17 “Good Governance” Through Comitology? 311
CHRISTIAN JOERGES
1. Introduction 311
2. Deliberative Supranationalism and Risk Regulation 312
2.1 The EU as a Multi-level System 312
2.2 The Legal Conceptualisation of Governance within the European Multi-level System 313
3. Normative Perspectives and Factual Circumstances 316
3.1 Repercussions on Domestic Policies and Policy-making Processes 316
3.2 Decisional Processes within the European Committees 318
4. The Constitutionalisation of Risk Regulation in the Internal Market 322
4.1 Towards Good Governance: The “Political Administration” of the Internal Market 322
4.2 “Unburdening” Product Regulation from Distributive Questions 324
4.3 The Accountability of the Internal Market’s “Political Administration” 326
4.4 Rules and Principles for Europe’s “Political Administration” 332

18 Epilogue: “Comitology” as Revolution – Infranationalism, Constitutionalism and Democracy 339
J H H Weiler

Infranationalism 340
Constitutionalism 343
Democracy 347
Editorial Note 349

Bibliography 351

List of Contributors

Annex 1 Council Decision 87/373/EEC laying down the procedures for the exercise of implementing powers conferred on the Commission 377

Annex 3 Council Decision 1999/468/EC laying down procedures for the exercise of implementing powers conferred on the Commission 386

Index 395