Contents

Contributors ix

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction
Legacies of Legal Realism: Social Science, Social Policy, and the Law
Patricia Ewick, Robert A. Kagan, and Austin Sarat

PART I
HISTORICAL AND STRUCTURAL ANALYSES OF LAW

Chapter 1
Privatization and Punishment: Lessons from History
Malcolm M. Feeley

Chapter 2
On Stage: Some Historical Notes About Criminal Justice
Lawrence M. Friedman

Chapter 3
Beyond the Law of Evidence: Facts and Inequality in Criminal Defense
Kenneth Mann

PART II
BARRIERS TO INFLUENCE

Chapter 4
A Bad Press on Bad Lawyers: The Media Sees Research, Research Sees the Media
Deborah L. Rhode

Chapter 5
Maps, Gaps, Sociolegal Scholarship, and the Tort Reform Debate
Neil Vidmar
Chapter 6    Hunting for Bias: Notes on the Evolution of Strategies for Documenting Invidious Discrimination
           Jack Katz

Chapter 7    Good for What Purpose? Social Science, Race, and Proportionality Review in New Jersey
           David Weisburd

PART III    LAW AND THE REORDERING OF SOCIAL RELATIONS

Chapter 8    Boundary Work: Levels of Analysis, the Macro-Micro Link, and the Social Control of Organizations
           Diane Vaughan

Chapter 9    When You Can’t Just Say “No”: Controlling Lawyers’ Conflicts of Interest
           Susan P. Shapiro

Index