Recrafting the Rule of Law: The Limits of Legal Order

Edited by
DAVID DYzenHAUS
The University of Toronto

HART PUBLISHING
OXFORD – PORTLAND OREGON
1999
Contents

List of Contributors vii
Preface and Acknowledgements viii

1 Recrafting the Rule of Law
   David Dyzenhaus 1

PART I: LAW UNDER STRESS

2 A Defence of Radbruch’s Formula
   Robert Alexy 15
3 The Interpretation and Invalidity of Unjust Laws
   Julian Rivers 40
4 Legality Without a Constitution: South Africa in the 1980s
   Richard L. Abel 66
5 Delivering Positivism from Evil
   Anton Fagan 81
6 Legal Positivism and American Slave Law: The Case of Chief
   Justice Shaw
   Anthony J. Sebok 113
7 The Rule of Law and Judicial Review: Reflections on the Israeli Constitutional Revolution
   Alon Harel 143

PART II: RECONCEIVING THE RULE OF LAW

8 Rhetoric and the Rule of Law
   Neil MacCormick 163
9 Utopia and the Rule of Law
   Christine Sypnowich 178
10 The Rule of Law Revisited: Democracy and Courts
   Allan C. Hutchinson 196

PART III: THE LIMITS OF LEGAL ORDER

11 Parks, Dogs, and the Rule of Law: Post-communist Reflections
   Andras Sajo 227
12 Globalization and the Fate of Law
   William E. Scheuerman 243
Contents

13 Supranational Challenges to the Rule of Law: The Case of the European Union
   John P. McCormick  267

14 Constructing Law's Mandate
   Kenneth Winston  283

15 Administrative Policy-making: Rule of Law or Bureaucracy?
   Henry S. Richardson  309

16 The Real Democracy Problem in Administrative Law
   Jody Freeman  331

Index  371