Contents

Preface
Frank Marini

Introduction
Frank Marini

PART 1
The Implications of Interconnectedness for Public Managers

1. Managing Interconnectedness: The New Challenge for Public Administration
   Jeff S. Luke

2. Beyond Rationality: Decisionmaking in an Interconnected World
   Mary Timney Bailey

3. "A Wild Patience": A Feminist View of Ameliorative Public Administration
   Camilla Stivers

4. Humanizing the Workplace: Incorporating Feminine Leadership
   Carol J. Edlund

PART 2
Reality and Other Challenges to the Emergence of New Public Administration Practice

5. The Feminization of Public Administration: Today’s Reality and Tomorrow’s Promise
   Mary E. Guy
6 The Tug of History: The Operant Theory of Social Control and the American Administrative State
\textit{Richard T. Mayer} \hfill 117

\textit{PART 3} Interconnectedness, Democracy, and Epistemology \hfill 143

7 American Constitutionalism in the Interconnected World: Administrative Responsibilities in a Rhetorical Republic
\textit{Robert C. Zinke} \hfill 145

8 Knowledge Development and Use in Public Administration: Views from Postpositivism, Poststructuralism, and Postmodernism
\textit{Jay D. White} \hfill 159

\textit{Epilogue} \textit{Dwight Waldo} \hfill 177

\textit{Bibliography} \hfill 185

\textit{Index} \hfill 199

\textit{About the Editors and Contributors} \hfill 205