ERODING THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER

by

YEHUDA Z. BLUM

MARTINUS NIJHOFF PUBLISHERS
DORDRECHT / BOSTON / LONDON
TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Preface and Acknowledgements xi
- Table of Cases xiii
- Provisions of Charter, etc. xv
- Abbreviations xxi
- Introduction 1

Chapter 1: ‘Masters of Their Own Procedure’
- I General 9
- II Legal Character of Rules of Procedure 12
- III Legal Effects of the Non-Observance of Rules of Procedure 17

Chapter 2: Indonesia’s Return to the United Nations 21

Chapter 3: Abuse of the Credentials Procedure in the United Nations
- General Assembly 33
  - I General 33
  - II The Case of Hungary 41
  - III The Case of South Africa 43
  - IV The Case of Israel 55
  - V Conclusion 56
Chapter 9: Obligatory Abstention in the Security Council (Article 27(3) of the Charter) 193
I General ................................................................. 193
II ‘Disputes’ and ‘Parties’ .................................................. 195
III The Obligatory Abstention Rule in Practice ...................... 204
   A Cases in which Members of the Council Abstained in Conformity with Article 27(3) and Acknowledged an Obligation to do so .................. 204
   B Cases of Obligatory Abstention without Acknowledgement of Obligation ............... 206
   C Cases of Abstention, with Reference to Article 27(3), not required under that Provision .......... 207
   D Cases of Non-observance of the Rule of Obligatory Abstention ............................. 207
IV Has the Validity of the Obligatory Abstention Rule been Eroded? .............................. 211

Chapter 10: The Composition of the Trusteeship Council 217

Chapter 11: Charter Transformation through Subsequent Practice? 239

Bibliography 257
I Books ................................................................. 257
II Articles ......................................................... 260
III UN Publications .................................................. 266

Index 267