The European Parliament

by

FRANCIS JACOBS, RICHARD CORBETT and MICHAEL SHACKLETON
TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Tables and Figures ................................................................. xiv
Foreword .......................................................................................... xv
About the authors ........................................................................... xvi
Acknowledgements ......................................................................... xvii
Introduction .................................................................................... xviii

I: THE FRAMEWORK

Chapter 1. The Parliament in context ........................................... 2

The institutional context ................................................................. 2
  - The Commission ........................................................................ 3
  - The Council .............................................................................. 4
  - Other Community bodies .......................................................... 5
  - The European Parliament compared to national parliaments ..... 6
The historical context ...................................................................... 7

Chapter 2. How it is elected ............................................................ 12

1. The run-up to direct elections .................................................... 13
2. The variety of national systems and the main differences between them ............................................................................ 15
3. Main issues in drawing up a uniform electoral system ............. 17
   (i) The nature of the electoral system ....................................... 18
   (ii) The choice of candidates .................................................... 20
   (iii) The right to vote ............................................................ 22
   (iv) Finance ............................................................................. 22
   (v) The number of seats per country ....................................... 23
4. The attempts that have been made so far in drawing up a uniform electoral system ....................................................... 24
The European elections so far ..................................................... 28

Chapter 3. Where, when and in quale lingua ................................. 29

The seat issue: where the Parliament meets ................................. 29
When: Parliament's cycle of activities ............................................. 34
In quale lingua: languages within the European Parliament ............. 35

II: THE ACTORS AND WORKING STRUCTURES

Chapter 4. The individual members .............................................. 40

1. Rights and obligations of individual members within the European Parliamentary system ........................................... 40
   - Incompatibilities and verification of credentials .................... 40
   - Facilities ........................................................................ 41
   - Immunities ..................................................................... 42
   - Declaration of financial interests ...................................... 43
   - The members' assistants .................................................. 44

2. Background of the individual members elected in 1989 ............... 45
   - Length of service ......................................................... 45
   - Balance between men and women ..................................... 46
   - National parliamentary and ministerial experience ............... 46
   - Other political experience ............................................. 48

3. The role of individual members within the Parliamentary system .. 48

4. The work of an individual MEP: choice of priorities ................. 53

Chapter 5. The Political Groups ................................................... 56

Their importance in the work of the Parliament ............................. 56
Their historical evolution .......................................................... 56
The Groups after the third direct elections in 1989 ......................... 59
   - Socialist Group ............................................................. 61
   - Group of the European People’s Party ................................ 62
   - Liberal, Democratic and Reformist Group ........................... 66
   - Group of the United European Left .................................. 68
   - The Greens .................................................................... 70
   - Group of the European Democratic Alliance ....................... 72
   - Rainbow Group ............................................................ 73
   - Technical Group of the Right ......................................... 75
   - The Left Unity Group ..................................................... 76

The non-attached members ........................................................ 77
Support provided by the European Parliament to the Political Groups ......................................................... 78
Structures of Groups ................................................................ 79
Political Group staffing ............................................................ 79
Working methods within the Groups ............................................ 81
Own activities of the Groups ..................................................... 81
National delegations ................................................................ 82
Whipping ................................................................................. 83
Power balances and relations between the Groups ......................... 84
European Party Federations ......................................................... 86
Chapter 6. Leadership structures

The President ................................................................. 88
  – Presidents of the Parliament ........................................ 89
The Vice-Presidents .......................................................... 89
The Quaestors ............................................................... 90
The election of the President, Vice-Presidents and Quaestors ........ 91
  – Working methods and responsibilities ............................ 94

Chapter 7. The Parliamentary committees ................................ 97

Development of the Committee system, and division of responsibilities between committees ............................................................. 97
  – Developments of the committee system before 1979 .............. 97
  – Developments since direct elections .................................. 98
  – Factors inhibiting further expansion in the number of committees 98
  – Division of responsibilities between committees .................. 99
  – Developments since 1989 ............................................. 100
Selection of committee office-holders .................................... 103
Membership of committees .................................................. 106
Decision-making structures within the committees ............... 108
Staff ............................................................................. 108
Where and when the committees meet .................................. 109
How the committees function .............................................. 111
Committee business ............................................................ 112
  – Origin of draft reports and opinions .................................. 112
  – Nomination of rapporteurs and draftsmen .......................... 115
  – The progress of reports and opinions through a committee .... 117
  – Alternative committee procedures .................................. 123
  – Treatment of confidential documents in committee .............. 124
  – Other activities of committees besides the preparation of reports 125
  – Co-ordination of committee activities ............................... 125
The establishment of specific structures within or outside the existing committee framework to tackle particular policy problems ...................................................... 125
  – Within the standing committee framework ....................... 126
    (i) Sub-committees ....................................................... 126
    (ii) Working parties ..................................................... 126
  – Outside the standing committee framework ....................... 127
    (i) Committees of inquiry ........................................... 127
    (ii) Temporary committees .......................................... 128
Interparliamentary delegations .......................................... 128
  – Number and composition ............................................. 129
  – Leadership .................................................................. 132
  – Role of delegations and Joint Parliamentary Committees ....... 132
  – Working methods ....................................................... 133
ACP-EEC Joint Assembly .................................................. 135
Chapter 8. Plenary sessions ................................................. 136
The background setting ................................................. 136
The typical timetable of a session ................................... 140
How the plenary agenda is drawn up ................................ 142
   - Topical and urgent debates ..................................... 143
The organization of plenary debates ................................. 145
Voting procedures ......................................................... 147
   - Voting order ....................................................... 149
Common procedural manoeuvres ..................................... 151
Order in the chamber .................................................... 153
Record of plenary sittings .............................................. 154
"Open" enlarged bureau ................................................. 155
Formal sittings ............................................................. 156
Concluding comments on plenary sessions ........................ 156
   - Some common criticisms, and some suggestions for reform 156

Chapter 9. Intergroups ........................................................ 159
Specific intergroups ....................................................... 161
   - Intergroup of Local and Regional Representatives .......... 161
   - Kangaroo Group ....................................................... 162
   - Media Intergroup ..................................................... 163
   - Land Use and Food Policy Intergroup .......................... 163
   - Federalist Intergroup for European Union .................... 163
   - Detailed case study: Intergroup on Animal Welfare ......... 164
      (i) Purpose .......................................................... 164
      (ii) History ........................................................ 164
      (iii) Structure and membership .................................. 165
      (iv) Working methods ............................................. 165
      (v) Achievements ................................................ 166

Chapter 10. The Parliament Secretariat ............................... 170

III: THE POWERS OF THE PARLIAMENT

Chapter 11. The Parliament and legislation .......................... 178
Making the most of consultation ...................................... 178
   - Extension of the scope of the procedure ..................... 179
   - Improving the quality of the procedure ...................... 179
   - Giving teeth to the procedure: the Court ruling of 1980 180
   - Taking advantage of the "Isoglucose" ruling ................. 181
The conciliation procedure ............................................. 182
   - Adoption and application of the procedure .................. 182
   - Extension of the procedure ..................................... 184
The co-operation procedure .......................................... 185
Developments resulting from the co-operation procedure ....... 187
   - Determination of the legal base of proposals ............... 187
   - Reconsultation of Parliament ................................... 189
CONTENTS xi

- Information on Council’s common position ......................... 189
- Contacts, negotiations and dialogue with the Council and Commission during the legislative procedure .................. 190
- Change in balance of Parliament’s activities .................... 190

The co-decision procedure ........................................... 190
- Scope of the procedure ........................................... 192

Assent procedure ..................................................... 194
Parliament and the approval of international agreements ......... 194
- The Luns procedure ............................................. 196
- The AETR ruling of the Court .................................. 196
- The Luns-Westerterp procedure ................................ 196
- Improvement of the Luns-Westerterp procedures ............... 197
- The Stuttgart “Solemn Declaration on European Union” ...... 197
- The assent procedure introduced by the Single European Act 197
- The co-operation procedure and international agreements ... 198
- The extension of the assent procedure by the Treaty of Maastricht ...................................................... 198

Right to initiate legislation .......................................... 199
- Resolutions seeking to initiate legislation ...................... 200
- Initiatives pursuant to the Joint Declaration of June 1982 ... 201
- Cutting off budgetary funds .................................... 201
- Annual legislative programme ................................... 202
Overall assessment .................................................... 202

Chapter 12. The budgetary role ...................................... 209

The procedures within Parliament ................................... 211
Compulsory and non-compulsory expenditure ....................... 213
The maximum rate of increase ..................................... 214
Parliament’s objectives and strategy ................................ 216
From first to second reading ....................................... 218
The option of rejection ............................................. 220
Implementation of the budget ....................................... 220
Relation between the budget and legislation ...................... 222
A wider budgetary role ............................................. 223

Chapter 13. Scrutiny control and appointments ................. 224

The right of censure .................................................. 225
Parliament and the appointment of the Commission ............... 226
Appointment to the Central Bank and other European Monetary Institutes ......................................................... 228
Appointments to the Court of Auditors ............................ 228
Control of expenditure and the right to grant discharge ....... 228 Scrutiny of executive decisions and implementing measures: the issue of “comitology” ........................................... 230
-(a) Who adopts what: ensuring efficiency and transparency ... 230
-(b) Ensuring parliamentary scrutiny of executive decisions ... 233
Scrutiny within the Parliamentary committees ................... 235
Scrutiny of implementation of international agreements through special organs ......................................................... 236
- The ACP-EEC Joint Assembly ....................................................... 236
- Joint Parliamentary Committees .............................................. 237
- Interparliamentary delegations ............................................... 238
Freezing items in the Commission’s budget ................................ 238
Parliament as a litigant ................................................................. 239
Reports from the other institutions to Parliament ....................... 241
Parliamentary questions .............................................................. 242
Independent access to information ............................................ 245
- Research and Studies Department ........................................... 245
- STOA ................................................................................. 245
- Other external inputs .............................................................. 246
Overall assessment ................................................................. 246

Chapter 14. A forum and channel for communication ................. 247

Major debates ........................................................................... 248
Topical and urgent debates ....................................................... 249
Other resolutions adopted at the Parliament’s own initiative ....... 249
Hearings .................................................................................... 250
Committees of inquiry ............................................................... 252
Interparliamentary delegations ................................................. 254
Ad hoc delegations ................................................................... 254
Visits to the Parliament ............................................................. 255
Lobbyists ................................................................................... 256
Contact channels to the other institutions .................................. 257
Contact channels to national parliaments .................................... 259
Contacts with individual governments ........................................ 262
Activities in the field of human rights ......................................... 263
Petitions .................................................................................... 264
Ombudsman ............................................................................... 266
Prizes ...................................................................................... 267
Conferences, symposia and exhibitions ...................................... 267
Miscellaneous ........................................................................... 267
Overall assessment ................................................................. 268

Chapter 15. Parliament and constitutional change ...................... 272

Draft Treaty on European Union .............................................. 274
From the Single European Act to Maastricht .............................. 276
Overall assessment ................................................................. 277

Chapter 16. Conclusion ............................................................. 279
IV: APPENDICES

ONE European Parliament elections ........................................ 282
TWO Contact details of Parliament offices ................................ 289
THREE Who are the MEPs? .................................................. 291
FOUR Bibliography ................................................................ 299
General Index ................................................................. 307
Names Index ................................................................. 323