Contents

Preface vii
Acknowledgments ix

PART I • Introduction

1 • The Constitution and American Politics: A Developmental Perspective
PETER F. NARDULLI 3

PART II • The Constitution and the Development of National Political Institutions

2 • Incrementalism in the People’s Branch: The Constitution and the Development of the Policy-making Process
DAVID BRADY 35

3 • Responsiveness in the Upper Chamber: The Constitution and the Institutional Development of the Senate
CHARLES STEWART III 63

4 • Entrepreneur in the Constitutional Marketplace: The Development of the Presidency
BERT A. ROCKMAN 97

5 • Democratic Constitutionalism and the Evolution of Bureaucratic Government: Freedom and Accountability in the Administrative State
DAVID H. ROSEN BLOOM 121

6 • Supreme Court Activism and the Constitution
LAWRENCE BAUM 150
PART III • The Constitution and Its Institutional Penumbra

7 • The American Constitutional Framework and the Structure of American Political Parties
KENNETH JANDA 179

8 • Interest Groups and the Constitution
GRAHAM K. WILSON 207

PART IV • The Constitution and the Federal System

9 • The Irony of the Federal Constitution's Genius: State Constitutional Development
KERMIT L. HALL 235

10 • The Constitution, Institutionalization, and the Evolution of Federalism
JOHN E. CHUBB 262

PART V • Conclusion

11 • The Empowering and Protective Concerns of American Constitutionalism
FREDERICK M. WIRT 293

Notes on Contributors 317
Index 319