

POSTMODERN CRIMINOLOGY

DRAGAN MILOVANOVIC

GARLAND PUBLISHING, INC.
NEW YORK AND LONDON
1997

Contents

Series Editor's Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	xiii
Part 1 Theoretical Integration	1
1 Dueling Paradigms: Modernist v. Postmodernist Thought	3
2 The Decentered Subject in Law: Contributions of Topology, Psychoanalytic Semiotics, and Chaos Theory	25
3 Borromean Knots and the Constitution of Sense in Juridico-Discursive Production	57
4 Constitutive Criminology: The Maturation of Critical Theory By Stuart Henry and Dragan Milovanovic	77
Part 2 Application: Doing Affirmative Postmodern Analysis in Law, Crime, and Penology	93
5 Jailhouse Lawyers and Jailhouse Lawyering	95
6 Overcoming the Absurd: Prisoner Litigation as Primitive Rebellion By Dragan Milovanovic and Jim Thomas	115
7 The Necessity Defense, Substantive Justice, and Oppositional Linguistic Practice By Shelley Bannister and Dragan Milovanovic	133
8 Constitutive Penology By Dragan Milovanovic and Stuart Henry	153
9 Topology, Chaos, and Psychoanalytic Semiotics	171
Part 3 Emerging Postmodern Methodologies: Integration and Application	187
10 Chaos and Criminology: Phase Maps and Bifurcation Diagrams	189
11 Chaos, Meta-Modeling, and Criminology: Iterative Loops, COREL and Mandelbrot Sets	205

12 Catastrophe Theory, Crime, and Peacemaking	221
Conclusion: Toward the New Orderly (Dis)Order	237
References	239
Cases Cited	256
Index	257