INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION IN THE 21ST CENTURY: TOWARDS "JUDICIALIZATION" AND UNIFORMITY?

TWELFTH SOKOL COLLOQUIUM

Richard B. Lillich and Charles N. Brower
Editors

TRANSNATIONAL PUBLISHERS, INC.
Irvington, New York
CONTENTS

PREFACE by Richard B. Lillich vii
INTRODUCTION by Charles N. Brower ix

PROCEDURAL ASPECTS

I. Balancing the Need for Certainty and Flexibility in International Arbitration Procedures
   Judge Howard M. Holtzmann 3

II. Court Intervention in Arbitration
    Professor Andreas Bucher 29

III. “Fast-Track” Arbitration: A Step Away from Judicialization of International Arbitration
     Arthur W. Rovine, Esq. 45

GOVERNING LAW

IV. The Law Governing Disputes Under Economic Development Agreements: Reexamining the Concept of “Internationalization”
    Professor Richard B. Lillich 61

V. National Law and the Judicialization of Arbitration: Manifest Destiny, Manifest Disregard, or Manifest Error
    Professor Thomas E. Carbonneau 115

REVIEW OF AWARDS

VI. Annulment of Awards in International Arbitration
    Professor Albert Jan van den Berg 133
VII. National Enforcement of Arbitral Awards Under Treaties and Conventions
   David P. Stewart, Esq. 163

VIII. ICSID: A Self-Contained, Non-National Review System
   Professor Andrea Giardina 199

SOME SPECIAL PROBLEMS

IX. Interpretation of Article 25(2)(b) of the ICSID Convention
   Dr. C.F. Amerasinghe 223

X. Punitive Damages in International Commercial Arbitration
   Professor Clifford Larsen 245

CONCLUDING REMARKS
   Professor Richard B. Bilder 275

CONTRIBUTORS 281
INDEX 283