Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter 1</th>
<th>Justice in Close Relationships: An Introduction</th>
<th>1</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Gerold Mikula and Melvin J. Lerner</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rules of Justice in Close Relationships</td>
<td>2</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Concerns with Justice in Close Relationships</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gender Inequalities in Close Relationships</td>
<td>5</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interpretations of Violations of Entitlements</td>
<td>6</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mutual Stimulation</td>
<td>7</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References</td>
<td>8</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Chapter 2 | Equity and Balance in the Exchange of Contributions in Close Relationships | 11 |
| Susan Sprecher and Pepper Schwartz |
| Equity and Equality in Contributions to the Relationship | 12 |
| Money and Work | 13 |
| Household Chores | 14 |
| Intimacy | 14 |
| A Traditional Exchange of Contributions | 15 |
| Theoretical Background to Perceived Equity | 15 |
| Equity Theory | 16 |
| Equality: Another Distributive Justice Norm | 17 |
| Social-Exchange Variables in Outcome-Interdependence Theory | 18 |
| Measurement and Analysis of Equity | 18 |
| Global Measures of Equity | 19 |
| Detailed Measures of Equity | 19 |
Chapter 3  Entitlements in Close Relationships: A Justice-Motive Analysis

Serge Desmarais and Melvin J. Lerner

Theoretical Approaches
Empirical Evidence
  Relationship between Adult Siblings Caring for Their Elderly Parents
  Satisfaction in Dating and Married Relationships
  Conflicts in Dating Relationships
Considerations for Future Research
References

Chapter 4  Resource Allocation in Intimate Relationships: Trying to Make Sense of a Confusing Literature

Margaret S. Clark and Kathleen Chrisman

Existing Research
Evidence Regarding an Equity Rule
Chapter 5  Social Comparison and Social Exchange in Marital Relationships

Nico W. VanYperen and Bram P. Buunk

Gender Differences in the Perception of Equity ........................................... 91
Relational Comparisons and Marital Satisfaction ....................................... 93
Inputs and Outcomes in a Marital Relationship ......................................... 97
Exchange and Communal Orientation ......................................................... 99
Referential Comparisons ............................................................................. 101
Self-Enhancement in Referential Comparisons ......................................... 103
Conclusions .................................................................................................. 108
References ................................................................................................. 110

Chapter 6  Entitlement in Romantic Relationships in the United States: A Social-Exchange Perspective

Mark Attridge and Ellen Berscheid

The Social-Exchange Conceptual Framework .............................................. 118
Goodness of Outcomes, Comparison Level, and Comparison Level for Alternatives ......................................................... 118
"External Barriers" to Relationship Termination ......................................... 119
Reductions in Barriers to CR Termination .................................................. 120
Economic Barriers ....................................................................................... 120
Legal Barriers ............................................................................................. 121
Religious Barriers ....................................................................................... 122
Barriers Due to Children ............................................................................ 123
Social Barriers ............................................................................................. 124
Societal Changes Resulting in Alternatives to the Relationship .................................................. 125
  Availability of Potential Alternative Partners ................................................................. 125
  The Single Life ..................................................................................................................... 126
  Premarital Sex .................................................................................................................... 127
  Postponement of Marriage ................................................................................................. 127
  New Reproductive Technologies .......................................................................................... 127
  Relationship Alternatives as Presented in the Media .......................................................... 128

Indirect Effects of Barrier Reduction and Alternatives on Attraction to the Relationship .......... 129
  Monitoring of CR Outcomes ............................................................................................ 130
  Insecurity about the Relationship ..................................................................................... 130
  An Exchange Orientation to CRs ....................................................................................... 131

Historical Changes in CR Entitlement Beliefs ........................................................................ 131
  From Farmers to Flappers .................................................................................................. 131
  “Traditional” Marriage Roles ............................................................................................ 132
  The Modern Era ................................................................................................................ 132
  Recent Countertrends ....................................................................................................... 135

Implications of Changes in Entitlement Beliefs for Emotional Experience in CRs ...................... 136
  The Emotion-in-Relationships Model .................................................................................. 137
  Interdependence and the Potential for Emotion ............................................................... 138

Entitlement Beliefs and Relationship Stability .......................................................................... 139
  Positive Emotion and Relationship Stability ..................................................................... 139
  Intervention Strategies ....................................................................................................... 141

Summary ................................................................................................................................ 142
References .............................................................................................................................. 144

Chapter 7  Paradoxical Effects of Closeness in Relationships on Perceptions of Justice: An Interdependence-Theory Perspective ........................................... 149

John G. Holmes and George Levinger

Interdependence in Close Relationships .............................................................................. 150
  The Case of the Castles ....................................................................................................... 152

Recognizing and Interpreting Imbalances: A Two-Stage Model ........................................ 153
  The Benefits of Interdependence: Tolerance and Loyalty ................................................ 154
  Recognizing Imbalances ..................................................................................................... 154
Chapter 8  Perspective-Related Differences in Interpretations of Injustice by Victims and Victimizers: A Test with Close Relationships

Gerold Mikula

Differences between Victims' and Victimizers' Views:
Theoretical Considerations ........................................ 176
Implications of Injustice for Victims and Victimizers and Possibilities of Dealing with These Implications ........................................ 177
Relevant Theorizing and Empirical Evidence ...................... 182
Actor-Observer Differences in Attributions ...................... 182
Attributions in Close Relationships .............................. 183
Excuse-Giving for Social Transgressions ....................... 185
Victims' and Victimizers' Evaluations and Accounts for Interpersonal Wrongdoing .................................. 185
Victim–Victimizer Differences in Close Relationships:
Qualifications Needed? ............................................. 186
Differences between Victims' and Victimizers' Views of Injustice: Two Empirical Studies with Close Relationships .......................... 188
Study I .............................................................. 190
Study II .............................................................. 192
Discussion ........................................................... 195
Conclusions .......................................................... 197
References .................................................................... 199
Chapter 9  Problems with the Transition to Parenthood:
Perceived Responsibility for Restrictions and Losses and the Experience of Injustice ............................ 205

Barbara Reichle and Leo Montada

An Empirical Study of Experienced Restrictions and Losses
after the Birth of the First Child ............................ 207
  Theoretical Framework and Guiding Questions .......... 207
  The Empirical Study: An Overview ....................... 208
  The Sample ............................................ 210
  Results and Interpretations ............................ 210
Concluding Remarks ........................................ 223
References .................................................. 225

Chapter 10  Equality and Entitlement in Marriage: Benefits and Barriers .................................................. 229

Janice M. Steil

The Persistence of Inequality ................................ 230
Equality Defined ............................................. 233
The Benefits of Equality: Theoretical Perspectives .... 235
  The Interpersonal Theorists ............................... 235
  Justice Theorists ....................................... 236
  The Equity Theorists .................................... 237
  The Multiprinciple Theorists .............................. 238
The Benefits of Equality: Further Empirical Evidence .. 240
Decision Making ............................................. 241
The Psychological Benefits of Equity ...................... 242
Summary of the Empirical Evidence ......................... 243
Explaining the Inequality .................................... 244
  Time Availability ...................................... 244
  Resource Differences ................................... 244
  The Cultural Context: The Provider Role ............... 246
Gender Differences in Entitlement: A Factor in Marital Inequality .................................................. 248
  Deserving and Entitlement at Home ...................... 250
  Responsibilities ....................................... 251
  Nurturance ............................................. 252
  Personal Development ................................... 252
References .................................................. 255
Chapter 11  Changing Sex-Role Expectations and Men's Concerns with Justice in the Home .......................... 259

Faye Crosby, Rehana Farrell, and Ann E. Cameron

Changing Realities .............................................. 260
  Attitudes about Domestic Arrangements .................. 261
  Attitudes and Behaviors .................................. 263
Men and Justice in the Home ................................ 265
  Managers and Deserving at Work and at Home in the Early 1980s .............................................. 265
Summary ...................................................... 267
  The Current Survey ......................................... 267
In Sum and Speculation ...................................... 275
References .................................................... 278

Chapter 12  Economic Roles in the Household System:
  Young People's Experiences and Expectations ...... 281

Nicholas P. Emier and Sharon Hall

Study 1: The Relations between Contributions, Benefits, and Beliefs .................................................. 286
  Personal Contributions to Household Labor .......... 287
  Personal Access to Resources ......................... 287
  Personal Contributions to Household Finances ...... 287
  Sex-Role Attitudes .................................... 288
Study 1: Summary .......................................... 289
Study 2: Actions and Beliefs ............................... 290
  Contributions to Housework ......................... 291
  Financial Contributions .............................. 291
  Sex-Role Beliefs .................................... 292
  Marriage and Cohabitation ............................ 292
Study 2: Summary and Implications ..................... 293
Study 3: Personality and Justice-Related Sentiments .. 294
  Measures ............................................... 295
  Contributions to Housework ......................... 296
  Beliefs, Personality, and Behavior .................. 297
  Relative Advantage and Sentiments of Fairness ...... 298
Some Conclusions about Entitlement and Obligation .... 298
Future Directions ......................................... 300
References .................................................. 302
Chapter 13  Family Work in Modern Japan: The Reproduction of Sons and Mothers ............................. 305

Louise H. Kidder and Nobuko Kosuge

Time Warp ............................................................. 306
Who Does What at Home ........................................... 309
The Reproduction of Sons and Mothers ......................... 314
Considering the Alternatives ...................................... 316
Considering Men ...................................................... 318
Conclusions .......................................................... 320
References ........................................................... 322

Chapter 14  Entitlement and the Affectional Bond: Reflections and Conclusions ........................................... 325

Melvin J. Lerner and Gerold Mikula

The Psychology of Close Relationships ......................... 327
Some Theoretical Questions Raised in This Volume .......... 327
Entitlements in Close Relationships .............................. 330

An Overview and Introductory Observations: Entitlements as Tactical Devices and/or Inherent Components of Marital Relations ......................................................... 330
Entitlements in the Structure of Close Relationships .......... 331
Entitlements in the Dynamics of Close Relationships: The Influence of Entitlements on Motives, Goals, Decision Making, and the Self-Concept ................................. 334
References ........................................................... 338

Author Index .......................................................... 341

Subject Index ........................................................ 349