Table of Contents

Acknowledgments ................................................................. xiii
  Fritz Reichert-Facilides
  Hans Ulrich Jessurun d'Oliveira

Preface ................................................................................. xv
  Hans Ulrich Jessurun d'Oliveira

Opening Address .................................................................... 1
  Patrick Pearson

  A. Introduction
  B. The EEC-Treaty
    I. In General
    II. Contract Law in an Internal Market
  C. Proposal for a Directive on Insurance Contracts
    I. The Problem and the Attempts to its Solution
    II. Why Agreement was not Reached
  D. Second Non-Life Directive
    I. In General
    II. Article 7 Second Non-Life Directive
  E. Third Non-Life Directive
    I. Amendments and Simplification
    II. The 'General Good'
      1. In General
      2. Criteria
    III. Application by a National Court of Private Contract Law and EC Law
    IV. Articles 24 and 25 of the Third Non-Life Directive
  F. Practical Context
  G. Conclusion

A Survey of International Insurance Contract Laws
within the EC ........................................................................... 11
  Fritz Reichert-Facilides

  A. Scope of the Paper
  B. Community Sources of Law
    I. Convention on the Law Applicable to Contractual Obligations
    II. Directives Law
      1. General Remarks
      2. Directives in Force (Second Directives)
        a. Survey
        b. Principles
3. Directive Proposals (Third Directives)
4. Selected Problems within the Directives Law
   a. Party Autonomy
   b. Mandatory Rules; Provisions Protecting the General Good
   c. Article 59 EEC Treaty

III. Relationship between the Rome Convention and the Directives Law
   1. In Principle
   2. Questions of Interpretation
   3. Remaining Gap in the Community International Insurance Contract Law

IV. Procedural Issues: Convention on Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Judgements in Civil and Commercial Matters

C. National Sources of Law
   I. Sources of EC Origin: Transformation of the Directives Law
      1. State of Transformation in the Member States
         a. Fulfilment
         b. Drafts
      2. Characterisation of the Transformation Laws and Drafts
         a. The Party Autonomy Model
         b. The Unilateral Model
         c. The German Solution

II. Sources of Non-EC Origin
   1. General Remarks
   2. Problem of Interrelations between Insurance Supervision and International Insurance Contract Law

D. Conclusions and Outlook

Party Autonomy in International Insurance Contract Law .......23
Robin C.G.J. Morse

A. Introduction
B. The Rome Convention
   I. Scope
      II. The Principle of Party Autonomy
         1. Making a Choice of Law
         2. Consent to the Choice of Law
   III. Limitations on Party Autonomy
      1. Article 3(3): Mandatory Rules
      2. Article 7(1): Mandatory Rules
      3. Article 7(2): Mandatory Rules of the Lex Fori
      4. Public Policy
      5. Consumer Contracts

IV. Conclusions

C. The Second Non-Life Directive
   I. Mode of Implementation
   II. Free Choice of Law
   III. Limiting Free Choice of Law
      1. Article 7 (1)(a)
      2. Article 7 (1)(b)
3. Article 7 (l)(c)
4. Article 7 (l)(e)
IV. Making the Choice of Law
V. Some Concluding Remarks

D. The Proposed Third Non-Life Directive
   I. Modification of Choice of Law Rules
   II. Article 25

E. The Second Life Directive
   I. Introduction
   II. The Choice of Law Rules in General
   III. Scope of Party Autonomy
   IV. Limits on Permissible Party Autonomy
   V. Some Conclusions

F. Final Observations

First Discussion Report of 23 May 1991 ..........................53
Helmut Heiss

A. Unification of Material Insurance Contract Law
B. Problems of the Directives Law
   I. General Conflict of Laws Rules (Article 7 (3) Second Non-Life Directive)
   II. Consumer Protection and Mandatory Rules
   III. ‘Conflict of Conflict of Laws Rules’
   IV. Delays in Implementing the Directives

Article 59 EEC-Treaty and its Implications for Conflicts Law in the Field of Insurance Contracts..........59
Wulf-Henning Roth

A. Community Law and Its Influence on Conflicts Law
   I. Introduction
   II. The Developments Towards the Second Non-Life Directive

B. Freedom to Provide Services—Basic Issues
   I. Adresssees
   II. The Substance of Article 59 EEC Treaty
      1. Conflicts Law as a Potential Restriction
      2. The Scope of the Freedom to Provide Services
      3. The Relevant Standards under Article 59 EEC Treaty
         a. Regulations Concerning the Provision of Services
         b. Regulations Concerning the Reception of Services

C. Implications for Community Conflicts Law
   I. The Location of Risk as Connecting Factor
      1. The Basic Role of Risk Location
      2. Divergence from Article 59?
      3. Conflicts Law
   II. Objective Connecting Factors
      1. Mandatory Choice-of-Law Rules
      2. Connecting Points and the Right of the Consumer to Purchase Insurance Out-of-State
III. Mandatory Rules of the Lex Fori

D. Summary

Bernard Audit

A. The Choices Made
   I. General Provisions on the Determination of the Applicable Law
   II. The Extent of Party Autonomy
      1. Party Autonomy According to French Law
      2. Party Autonomy by Way of Renvoi

B. The Unilateral Format of the Rules
   I. Risk and Policy-Holder’s Residence or Seat are in the Same State (X), not France (the ‘7(1)(a)’ Situation)
      1. Where there is no Choice-of-Law by the Parties
      2. If a Choice-of-Law has been made (Meeting the criteria of Article L.181-2)
   II. Risk and Policy-Holder’s Residence are Located in Different Member States (the ‘7(1)(b) and (c)’ Situations)
      1. If One of the States is France
      2. If Neither of the States is France

C. Conclusion

Second Discussion Report of 23 May 1991

Bernhard Rudisch

A. Harmonisation of Substantive Insurance Contract Law
B. Disparity among European and National Conflict-of-Laws Bodies
D. Renvoi
F. Application of Foreign Law—‘Mandatory Rules’

Mandatory Rules Governing Insurance Contracts and Private International Law

Ole Lando

A. Introduction
B. The Conflicting Policies
C. The Maze
D. The Illustration
E. Compulsory Insurance
Contents

F. Protecting the 'General Good'

G. Evaluation
   I. The Presentation of the Rules
   II. The Interests of the Insurer

The Law Applicable to Compulsory Insurance and Life Assurance: Some Peculiarities

Marc Fallon

A. Compulsory Insurance
   I. General Presentation of Substantive Provisions
      1. Field of Compulsory Insurance
      2. Content of Compulsory Insurance
      1. The Rome Convention
      2. Community Directives
      3. National Applicability Rules
         a. The Criterion of the Law Applicable to the Material Issue
         b. The Criterion of the Place of Activity of the Policy-Holder
         c. The Criterion of the Location of the Insured Good

B. Life Assurance
   I. The Law of the Habitual Residence of the Policy-Holder
      1. The Law of Residence as the Law of the Contract
      2. The Law of Residence as a Mandatory Rule
      3. The Law of Residence as a 'Public Policy' Provision
   II. The Law of the Establishment of the Insurer
   III. Other Possible Laws
      1. The Law Chosen by the Parties
      2. The Law of the Court (Lex Fori)
      3. The Law Applicable to the Validity of the Contract
      4. The Law Applicable to Non-Contractual Issues
         a. The Scope of the Law of the Contract
         b. Family Law and Labour Law Issues

C. Conclusion

Third Discussion Report of 24 May 1991

Helmut Heiss

A. Dépeçage
B. Effect of Different Laws on Premium Rates?
C. Compulsory Insurance
D. Life Assurance
E. Mandatory Rules, etc.
F. Further Aspects
The Evolution of Community Law on Services, with Special Reference to Financial Services and Consumer Protection

Norbert Reich

A. Some General Remarks
B. Community Laws' so-called 'Negative' Impact on Contracts for Services
   I. 'Mobility' of Services and Free Choice for Consumers
   II. Exceptions in the Field of Insurance
   III. The New Trend: 'Deregulation' of Insurance Markets
C. Restrictions Still Justified under Community Law
D. Protection under Private International Law: Some Examples
   I. Article 5 of the Rome Convention
   II. Rules Peculiar to Insurance Contracts
   III. Instruments of Payment
E. Several Aspects of Positive Integration in Contracts for Services
   I. Mutual Recognition and Consumer Protection
   II. Banking Services and Means of Payment
   III. Canvassing of Services
   IV. The Service Performer's Liability for Fault
   V. The Amended Proposal for a Directive on Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts
F. Conclusion

Observations from a Third Country on the Development of International Insurance Contract Law

Within the EC

Anton K. Schnyder

A. European Insurance Market and Countries Outside the EC
   I. The Single Market Programme
   II. Bilateral Procedure: The Insurance Agreement between the EC and Switzerland Dated 10 October 1989
   III. Multilateral Procedure: Creation of an European Economic Space?
   IV. Unilateral Procedure: Being Attuned to Europe—the Legislative Maxim of Switzerland's Federal Council
B. International Insurance Contract Law in the EC
   I. Integration Within a Programme for Liberalising Laws on Market Supervision
   II. Extended Party Autonomy in Determining the Applicable Law
   III. Temporary Failure to Harmonise Substantive Insurance Contract Law
   IV. Shortfalls, and Postulates for Improvement and Implementation which are still on the Agenda
      1. From a Secondary Tool of Integration to a Unified Conflicts Law for Insurance Contracts?
      2. Lack of Coordination between Jurisdiction of Courts and Insurance Conflicts Law
3. Too Many Regulation and Choice Options for Individual Member States
4. Open Situation as Regards Special Conflicts Law (Sonderanknüpfung) in Mandatory Contract Rules
   a. The Problem
   b. Scope and Specification of Rules Which Might be Subject to Special Connection
   c. Implementation of Special Applications

Bernhard Rudisch
A. Arbitration
B. The PIL Connecting Factor of Insurance Contracts
C. Method of Legislation and Quality of Law

Synopsis of the Colloquy and Prospects for International Insurance Contract Legislation Within the EC .................191
Fritz Reichert-Facilides
A. Outward Course of the Conference
B. Main Points of Discussion
   I. Preliminary Remark
   II. Issues of a More General Character
      1. Harmonisation of Material Insurance Contract Law
      2. Consumer Protection
      3. General Questions of Private International Law
      4. Private International and Procedural Law
   III. Issues Concerning the Directives Law
      1. Transformation: Unilateral Approach
      2. 'General Rules of Private International Law' in the Sense of the Directives Law
      3. Article 59 EEC Treaty in Its Relation to the Directives Law
         a. Article 25 as a Private International Law Provision?
         b. 'General Good'
      5. Understandability?
C. Prospects
Annexes:

Extracts from EEC Directives
1b. Proposal for a Third Non-Life Directive (92/C 244/02) ....207
1c. Third Non-Life Insurance Directive (92/49/EEC) ...........211
1e. Proposal for a Third Life Assurance Directive
(91/C 99/02) .........................................................................225
1f. Third Life Assurance Directive (92/96/EEC) ................231

Rome Convention on the Law Applicable to Contractual Obligations...........................................................241

List of Participants ................................................................255