THE UNITED NATIONS
COMPENSATION
COMMISSION

THIRTEENTH SOKOL COLLOQUIUM

Edited by Richard B. Lillich

TRANSNATIONAL PUBLISHERS, INC.
Irvington, New York
CONTENTS

PREFACE by Richard B. Lillich vii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS ix

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMPENSATION COMMISSION

I. The UN Compensation Commission: An Overview
   Ambassador Carlos Alzamora 3

II. The Lessons of the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal Applied to Claims Against Iraq
    Judge Charles N. Brower 15

III. Establishment of the UN Compensation Commission: The U.S. Government Perspective
     Ronald J. Bettauer, Esq. 29

IV. Establishment of the UN Compensation Commission: The Kuwaiti Government Perspective
    Dr. Adel Omar Asem 45

THE NATURE OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMPENSATION COMMISSION

V. Dispute Resolution or Administrative Tribunal: A Question of Due Process
   Jeremy P. Carver, Esq. 69

VI. The UNCC and Its Critics: Is Iraq Entitled to Judicial Due Process?
    John R. Crook, Esq. 77

VII. Claims Settlement and the United Nations Legal Structure
    Professor Frederick L. Kirgis, Jr. 103
THE OPERATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMPENSATION COMMISSION

Michael F. Raboin, Esq. 119

IX. Mass Claims Processing: Techniques for Processing Over 400,000 Claims for Individual Loss at the United Nations Compensation Commission
Christopher S. Gibson, Esq. 155

X. The Intellectual Heritage of Claims Processing at the United Nations Compensation Commission
Professor Francis E. McGovern 187

THE CONTRIBUTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMPENSATION COMMISSION TO THE INTERNATIONAL CLAIMS SETTLEMENT PROCESS

XI. Causation and Directness of Loss as Elements of Compensability Before the United Nations Compensation Commission
Dr. Norbert Wühler 207

XII. Toward a Foreseeability Approach to Causation Questions at the United Nations Compensation Commission
Authur W. Rovine, Esq. & Grant Hanessian, Esq. 235

XIII. Historic Analogues of the UN Compensation Commission
Professor David J. Bederman 257

XIV. State Responsibility and the UN Compensation Commission: Compensating Victims of Crimes of State
Professor Gordon A. Christenson 311

SUMMARY
The UNCC and the Search for Practical Justice
Professor David D. Caron 367

CONTRIBUTORS
379

APPENDICES
UN Security Council Resolution 687 383
Report of the Secretary-General Pursuant to Paragraph 19 of Security Council Resolution 687 385
UNCC Decision Nos. 1–26 397
TABLE OF CASES 469
INDEX 471