The Effectiveness of UN Human Rights Institutions

Patrick James Flood
Contents

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xiii

1. Introduction 1

2. Human Rights: What They Are, How They Acquired International Importance, and How They Relate to State Sovereignty 9

3. The UN Human Rights System 31

4. The Working Group on Enforced Disappearances 49

5. Special Rapporteur on the Elimination of Religious Discrimination and Intolerance 71

6. Special Rapporteur on Chile 82

7. Special Rapporteur on Iran 101

8. Factors Influencing the Effectiveness of UN Human Rights Institutions 116

Appendixes 133

A. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948) 135
B. General Assembly Resolution 33/173 on Disappeared Persons (1978) 141
C. Commission on Human Rights Resolution 20 (XXXVI) on Disappeared Persons (1980) 143
E. Human Rights Commission Resolution 1984/63 on Human Rights in Chile 147
F. Human Rights Commission Resolution 1984/54 on Human Rights in Iran 150
H. General Assembly Resolution 48/141 Establishing the Post of UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (1993) 156

Selected Bibliography 161
Index 167