TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface
L. Walgrave

Part 1: Principles of Restorative Justice

Restorative Justice. Variations on a Theme
P. McCold

Restorative Justice: a Question of Legitimacy
J. Trepanier

Victim/offender Conferencing: the Need for Safeguards
M. Wright

Some Principled Objections to a Restorative Justice Approach to Working with Juvenile Offenders
K. Haines

The Nature of Responsibility and Restorative Justice
R. Allen

The Importance of Shame to Restorative Justice
G. Masters

J. Deklerck & A. Depuydt

Part 2: Restorative Justice in Formal Settings

Mediation and Community Service in the Juvenile Justice Legislation in Europe
W. Schelkens
Restorative Justice and the Scottish Children’s Justice System
R.E. Mackay

Italian Experiences of Victim-Offender Mediation in the Juvenile Justice System
U. Gatti & A. Ceretti

Mediation and Community Service within the Belgian Law on Juvenile Protection
A. Buonatesta

Restorative Justice Trajectory in Québec
S. Charbonneau

Victim-Offender Mediation in Sweden
P. Lindström & K. Svanberg

The Development of Victim/offender Mediation in the German Juvenile Justice System
A. Hartmann & M. Kilchling

Part 3: Restorative Justice in Practice

Restoring Justice in Native Communities in Canada
M. Jaccoud

A Case Study of Restorative Justice: the Vermont Reparative Probation Program
H.D. Sinkinson & J.J. Broderick

Criminal Conflicts Involving Minors: Problems and Perspectives of Victim-offender Mediation
C.E. Paliero & G. Mannozzi

The Recidivism Rate of Community Service as a Restitutive Judicial Sanction in Comparison with the Traditional Juvenile Justice Measures
H. Geudens

Critical Assessment of Community Service and Mediation for Juvenile Offenders in Brussels
C. Eliaerts, E. Dumortier & R. Vanderhaeghen

The Juvenile Mediation Project in Leuven (Belgium)
M. Claes
Conclusion

Some Reflections on the Paradigm of Restorative Justice and its Viability for Juvenile Justice
E. Fattah

Addendum

Declaration of Leuven “on the Advisability of Promoting the Restorative Approach to Juvenile Crime”