

Criminal Prosperity

Drug Trafficking, Money Laundering and Financial Crises after the Cold War

Guilhem Fabre

Scientific coordinator for the Asian network of UNESCO's MOST Drugs Project

 RoutledgeCurzon
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

Introduction	vii
1 The Mirror of History	1
Opium and colonization	2
2 Drugs and Post-Communism: The Chinese Case	21
The rise of drug trafficking and consumption in China	24
The new drugs war	31
The expansion and diversification of drugs supplies	37
Yunnan: Drugs and geopolitics in Sino-Burmese relations	42
3 The Socio-economic Stakes of Drug Trafficking	67
The laundering matter	67
The role of offshore banking	73
4 Japan: The Yakuza Recession	87
Lessons from the Japanese crisis	99
5 Crisis and Laundering in Mexico: From the ‘Tequila Effect’ to the ‘Cocaine Effect’	111
6 Crisis and Laundering in Thailand: The Provincial Godfathers’ Launch on Bangkok	133
Conclusion	155