Diversity and Self-Determination in International Law

Karen Knop

University of Toronto
Contents

| Acknowledgments                           | page xi |
| Table of cases                           | xiii   |
| Table of treaties                        | xviii  |
| List of abbreviations                    | xxi    |
| Introduction                             | 1      |
| Approach                                 | 5      |
| Methodology                              | 16     |

PART I  Self-determination in post-Cold War international legal literature

1 The question of norm-type
   Rules and principles
   Change
   Participation
   The international community

2 Interpretation and identity
   Who is a ‘people’?
   When does the right of self-determination entitle a people to choose independence?

3 Pandemonium, interpretation and participation
   Darkness visible
   On the perilous edge
   The apostate angel

ix