CONTENTS

1. Introduction: From Stagnation to Hyper-Innovation 1

2. Images of the Regulatory State 12
   Governance and the Regulatory State 12
   The Regulatory State as an American State 13
   The Regulatory State as a European Madisonian State 17
   The Regulatory State as a Smart State 21
   The Regulatory State as a Risk State 26
   The British State as a Regulatory State 31
   Crisis, Club Rule, and the British Regulatory State 36

3. Creating Club Regulation 38
   Regulating Without a State 38
   Industrialism, Fear, and Club Rule 39
   The Victorian Regulatory State 41
   Embedding the Victorian Regulatory State 55
   The Coming Crisis of Club Regulation 64

4. Transforming Self-Regulation 67
   The Mosaic of Self-Regulation 67
   Understanding Transformation 69
   Mapping Self-Regulation 72
   Transforming Self-Regulation in Financial Markets 74
   Transforming Professional Regulation 79
   Transforming Sporting Regulation 86
   High Modernism and Self-Regulation 92

5. Regulating Privatization 95
   Privatization in the Age of Hyper-Innovation 95
   Corporate Regulation and Club Government 96
   The Theory and Practice of Privatization Regulation 100
   Regulating Business and Regulating Privatization 119
6. Regulating and Colonizing Public Worlds

Hyper-Innovation and Hyper-Politicization 124
Reregulating the Metropolitan Machine 125
Reregulating the Inspectorates 131
Reregulating Quasi-Government 138
The Colonization of New Regulatory Spheres 146
Synoptic Legibility in the New Regulatory State 153

7. From Stagnation to Fiasco: the Age of the Regulatory State

The Teleology of the Regulatory State 155
The Age of Globalization 157
The Age of Europeanisation 164
The Age of Fiasco 171
The Fate of the British Regulatory State 179

Notes 184
References 205
Index 231