CONTENTS

Preface v
Acknowledgments vii
Table of Cases xxv
Table of Statutes xlv
Table of Statutory Instruments li

1. CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

I. INTRODUCTION

II. WHAT CONDUCT OUGHT TO BE CRIMINAL?
- A. Introduction 3
- B. Criteria for Criminalisation
  - 1. Wrongful conduct 4
  - 2. Is it necessary to employ the criminal law? 18
  - 3. Is it permissible to criminalise the conduct? 23
- C. Conclusion 25

III. PUNISHMENT

- A. Retribution 26
  - 1. Vengeance 26
  - 2. Expiation 27
  - 3. Desert 28
  - 4. Censure or denunciation 33
- B. Deterrence 35
  - 1. Individual deterrence 35
  - 2. General deterrence 36
  - 3. Educative deterrence 41
- C. Incapacitation 46
- D. Rehabilitation 53
- E. Combining the Theories
  - 1. Who may be punished? 60
  - 2. How severely do we punish? 63
  - 3. What type of punishment? 67
- F. Sentencing Guidelines
  - 1. United States 70
  - 2. England and Wales 74

2. THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF CRIMINAL LIABILITY

I INTRODUCTION

II ACTUS REUS

- A. Introduction 84
- B. Constituent Elements of Actus Reus 85
- C. The Act must be Voluntary 87
D. Status Offences 90
E. Omissions 96
  1. Duty to act 97
  2. Performance of duty 105
  3. Distinguishing positive acts from omissions 106
  4. Omissions and causation 107
  5. A general duty to act? 108
III MENS REA 116
A. Blame and Responsibility 116
B. Blame and Mens Rea 119
  1. Intention 121
  2. Recklessness 143
  3. Negligence 172
  4. Levels of culpability 177
IV RELATIONSHIP OF MENS REA TO ACTUS REUS 179
A. Introduction 179
B. Coincidence of Actus Reus and Mens Rea 180
C. Transferred Malice 184
D. Mistake 188
  1. Mistake as to element of actus reus 189
  2. Mistake as to a defence element 197
  3. Mistake as to law 204
V DISPENSING WITH MENS REA 209
  1. The problem of proof 210
  2. Dualism 213
  3. Determinism 216
VI. STRICT LIABILITY 221
  1. Introduction 221
  2. The law 222
  3. Defences to strict liability 231
  4. Are strict liability offences justifiable? 235
  5. Strict liability and the European Convention on Human Rights 242
  6. Enforcement 243
  7. Sentencing 245
  8. Conclusion 245
VII CORPORATE CRIMINAL LIABILITY 246
A. Introduction 246
B. The Law 248
  1. Vicarious liability 248
  2. Direct liability: the identification doctrine 250
C. The Law in Action 254
D. Restructuring Corporate Criminal Liability 259
  1. Aggregation doctrine 259
  2. Reactive corporate fault 260
  3. Corporate mens rea doctrine 261
E. Specific Corporate Offences 262
F. Corporate or Personal Criminal Liability 264
G. Punishment of Companies 266
3. GENERAL DEFENCES

I JUSTIFICATION AND EXCUSE
A. Introduction 270
B. Justification 272
C. Excuses 274
D. Exemptions 279
E. Significance of Distinctions 280

II CONSENT
A. Introduction 283
B. The reality of consent 284
C. The nature and degree of the harm 287
D. Reform proposals 297
E. The rationale of consent as a defence 298

III. SELF-DEFENCE
A. Introduction 299
B. The triggering conditions 300
   1. Threat of unjustified harm 301
   2. Protected interests 302
C. The permitted response 303
   1. Necessity for any defensive action 305
   2. The amount of responsive force that may be used 307
   3. The duty to retreat 312
   4. The imminence of threatened attack 314
   5. Excessive self-defence 318

IV CHASTISEMENT

V DURESS AND NECESSITY
A. Introduction 323
B. Duress by Threats 325
   1. Rationale of duress by threats as a defence 325
   2. Parameters of the defence 329
C. Duress of Circumstances 350
D. Necessity 353
   1. Distinction between necessity and duress of circumstances 354
   2. The traditional approach of English law 355
   3. Emergence of a new defence? 360

VI SUPERIOR ORDERS

VII INVOLUNTARY CONDUCT
A. Introduction 365
   1. Narrow definition of involuntariness 366
   2. Preceding fault 367
   3. Cause of involuntariness 368
B. Insanity 369
   1. Introduction 369
   2. The law 372
C. Automatism 395
1. Mens rea

2. Actus reus

III CONSPIRACY

A. Introduction
B. Should there be a Law of Conspiracy?
C. Punishment of Conspiracies
D. The Law
   1. Types of conspiracy
   2. Common law conspiracies
   3. Statutory conspiracy

IV INCITEMENT

A. Introduction
B. Rationale and Punishment of Incitement
C. The Law
   1. Actus reus
   2. Mens rea
   3. Impossibility

V ENDANGERMENT OFFENCES

6. PARTICIPATION IN CRIME

I INTRODUCTION

II LAW

A. Principal Offenders
B. Secondary Parties
   1. Distinct modes of participation?
   2. Causation
   3. Assistance and encouragement
   4. Mens rea of accessories
   5. Procuring
   6. Reform proposals: assisting and encouraging crime

III THE LIMITS OF ACCESSORIAL LIABILITY

A. No Principal Offenders
B. Accessory can be Guilty of Graver Offence than the One Committed

C. Withdrawal of Accessories

D. Victims Cannot be Accessories

E. Accomplices and Transferred Malice

IV CONCLUSION

1. Blameworthiness
2. Causing harm
3. Lesser liability and punishment

7. NON-FATAL OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON

I OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON (NON-SEXUAL)

A. The extent and Context of Violence
2. Diminished responsibility 720
3. Killing in pursuance of a suicide pact 721
V INFANTICIDE 722
VI THE STRUCTURE OF HOMICIDE OFFENCES 726
   A. Rationale of Distinction between Different Categories of Homicide 726
   B. Greater Specificity 727
   C. Basis of Distinctions 730
   D. Unlawful Homicide—a Single Offence 734

9. OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY 739

I INTRODUCTION 739
   A. The Level of Offending 739
   B. The Sociological Background 741
      1. Why do people commit property offences? 741
      2. Social attitudes towards property offences 744
   C. The Legal background 745
II THEFT 747
   A. Extent and Context 747
   B. The Legal Background 748
   C. The Law 749
      1. Definition 749
      2. Appropriation 749
      3. Property 768
      4. Belonging to another 772
      5. Dishonesty 790
      6. Intention of permanent deprivation 797
III OFFENCES INVOLVING DECEPTION 805
   A. The Sociological Background 805
   B. The Legal Background 806
   C. The Law 807
      1. Common elements 808
      2. The offences 821
   D. Rethinking the Structure of Deception Offences 835
IV MAKING OFF WITHOUT PAYMENT 836
   A. Introduction 836
   B. The Law 837
      1. Actus reus 837
      2. Mens rea 839
      3. Punishment 839
V OTHER PROPERTY OFFENCES 840
   A. Sociological Background 840
   B. The Legal Background 841
   C. The Law 842
      1. Robbery 842
Contents

2. Burglary and aggravated burglary 843
3. Handling stolen goods 848

VI CONCLUSION 851
A. Underlying Rationale 851
B. Structure of Property Offences 851

Index 859