Unmasking the Crimes of the Powerful

SCRUTINIZING STATES & CORPORATIONS

EDITED BY
Steve Tombs & Dave Whyte

PETER LANG
New York • Washington, D.C./Baltimore • Bern
Frankfurt am Main • Berlin • Brussels • Vienna • Oxford
Contents

Foreword Holy Wars and Spiritual Revitalization ix
FRANK PEARCE

Acknowledgments xv

INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1 Scrutinizing the Powerful: Crime, Contemporary Political Economy, and Critical Social Research 3
STEVE TOMBS AND DAVE WHYTE

POWER, "VALID" KNOWLEDGE, AND THE LIMITS TO SCRUTINY

Chapter 2 Researching Corporate Crime 49
LAUREEN SNIDER

Chapter 3 Researching Corporate Crime: A Business Historian’s Perspective 69
GEOFFREY TWEEDALE

Chapter 4 CCTV Surveillance, Power, and Social Order: The State of Contemporary Social Control 88
ROY COLEMAN
Chapter 5  In the Valley of the Blind the One-Eyed Man Is King: Corporate Crime and the Myopia of Financial Regulation
GARY FOOKS

Chapter 6  Silencing the View from Below: The Institutional Regulation of Critical Research
EILEEN BERRINGTON, ANN JEMPHEY, AND PHIL SCRATON

Chapter 7  "Telling It Like It Is"? Power, Prejudice, Politics, and People in the Qualitative Process
COLM POWER

Chapter 8  Researching the Turkish State
PENNY GREEN

Chapter 9  Researching Regulators and the Paradoxes of Access
ANNE ALVESALO AND ERJA VIRTA

Chapter 10  Imaginative Crimes or Crimes of the Imagination: Researching the Secret State
PADDY HILLYARD

Chapter 11  Researching and Redefining State Crime: Feminism and the Capital Punishment of Women
ANETTE BALLINGER

Chapter 12  Whose Side Are We Not On? Researching Medical Power in Prisons
JOE SIM

Chapter 13  Unmasking the Crimes of the Powerful: Establishing Some Rules of Engagement
STEVE TOMBS AND DAVE WHYTE

Bibliography
Contributors
Index