Contents

Preface .......................................................... VII

A Brief History of International Law in Japan c. 1853–1900 .......... 1

Hui-gi Sim, Brutal Internal Struggle against External Imperialism: The Initial Phases in the Reception of Western Law into Korean Society in the 1890s .................................................. 23

Ingo J. Hueck, Pragmatism, Positivism and Hegelianism in the Nineteenth Century. August Wilhelm Heffter's Notion of Public International Law ........................................ 41

Mathias Schmoeckel, The Story of a Success. Lassa Oppenheim and his 'International Law' ....................................... 57

Benedict Kingsbury, Legal Positivism as Normative Politics: International Society, Balance of Power and Lassa Oppenheim’s Positive International Law ........................................ 139

Masaharu Yanagihara, The Idea of Non-discriminating War and Japan 179

Michael Stolleis, International Law under German National Socialism.
Some Contributions to the History of Jurisprudence 1933–1945 .... 203

Anthony Carty, State and Nation in the International Law Tradition:
A History of French-German Antagonisms and Possible Responses
in the Spanish Late Medieval Tradition .......................... 215

Albrecht Cordes, The Hanseatic League and its Legal Nature: Political, Legal and Historical Discourse .................................. 243