Epistemology and Methodology of Comparative Law

Edited by
Mark Van Hoecke
Katholieke Universiteit Brussel

OXFORD AND PORTLAND OREGON
2004
Contents

List of Contributors ix

1. Legal Culture v Legal Tradition
   Alan Watson 1

2. Legal Cultures and Legal Traditions
   H Patrick Glenn 7

3. Legal Epistemology and Transformation of Legal Cultures
   Marek Zirk-Sadowski 21

4. Epistemology and Comparative Law: Contributions from the Sciences and Social Sciences
   Geoffrey Samuel 35

5. How to Make Comparable Things: Legal Engineering at the Service of Comparative Law
   Juha Karhu (Previously Juha Pöyhönen) 79

6. Methodology and European Law—Can Methodology Change so as to Cope with the Multiplicity of the Law?
   Karl-Heinz Ladeur 91

7. Comparative Law of Obligations: Methodology and Epistemology
   Christian von Bar 123

8. Codifying European Private Law
   Walter van Gerven 137

9. Deep Level Comparative Law
   Mark Van Hoecke 165

10. NICE Dreams and Realities of European Private Law
    Nikolas Roos 197

11. The Europeanisation of National Legal Systems: Some Consequences for Legal Thinking in Civil Law Countries
    Jan M Smits 229
viii Contents

12. Comparative Law and the Internationalisation of Law in Europe 247
   Mireille Delmas-Marty

13. Public Law in Europe: Caught between the National, the Sub-National and the European? 259
   John Bell

   Horatia Muir Watt

15. Abridged or Forbidden Speech: How can Speech be Regulated through Speech? 285
   François Rigaux

16. Legisprudence and Comparative Law 299
   Luc J Wintgens

17. Rawls' Political Conception of Rights and Liberties: An Illiberal but Pragmatic Approach to the Problems of Harmonisation and Globalisation 317
   Paul de Hert and Serge Gutwirth

   Esin Örürçü

   Anne Lise Kjær