Mistake, Fraud and Duties to Inform in European Contract Law

edited by

Ruth Sefton-Green

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

General editors' preface  xi
Preface  xiii
List of contributors  xv
Table of legislation  xvii
Table of cases  xxvi
List of abbreviations  xxxvii

1 General introduction  1
Ruth Sefton-Green

2 Mistake, misrepresentation and precontractual duties to inform: the civil law tradition  39
Martin Josef Schermaier

3 The rise and fall of mistake in the English law of contract  65
John Cartwright

4 Case studies  87

Case 1: Anatole v. Bob  88
Discussions  88
Comparative observations  126

Case 2: Célimène v. Damien  131
Discussions  131
Comparative observations  158
Case 3: Emile v. Far Eastern Delights
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 4: Mr and Mrs Timeless v. Mr and Mrs Careless
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 5: Bruno v. The Local Garage
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 6: Emmanuel v. The Computer Shop
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 7: Cinderella
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 8: Estella v. Uriah Heep
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 9: Nell v. Scrooge Bank
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 10: Zachary
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 11: Monstrous Inventions Ltd v. Mary Shelley
Discussions
Comparative observations

Case 12: Lady Windermere v. Angel
Discussions
Comparative observations
5 Comparative conclusions
Ruth Sefton-Green

Index