Contents

List of Contributors ix
Acknowledgments xi

Introduction 1
Don A. Moore, George Loewenstein, Daylian M. Cain, and Max H. Bazerman

PART ONE BUSINESS

1 Managing Conflicts of Interest within Organizations: Does Activating Social Values Change the Impact of Self-Interest on Behavior? 13
Tom R. Tyler

2 Commentary: On Tyler's "Managing Conflicts of Interest within Organizations" 36
Robyn Dawes

3 A Review of Experimental and Archival Conflicts-of-Interest Research in Auditing 41
Mark W. Nelson

4 Commentary: Conflicts of Interest in Accounting 70
Don A. Moore

5 Bounded Ethicality as a Psychological Barrier to Recognizing Conflicts of Interest 74
Dolly Chugh, Max H. Bazerman, and Mahzarin R. Banaji

6 Commentary: Bounded Ethicality and Conflicts of Interest 96
Ann E. Tenbrunsel
Contents

7 Coming Clean but Playing Dirtier: The Shortcomings of Disclosure as a Solution to Conflicts of Interest 104
Daylian M. Cain, George Loewenstein, and Don A. Moore

8 Commentary: Psychologically Naive Assumptions about the Perils of Conflicts of Interest 126
Dale T. Miller

PART TWO MEDICINE

9 Physicians’ Financial Ties with the Pharmaceutical Industry: A Critical Element of a Formidable Marketing Network 133
Jerome P. Kassirer

10 Commentary: How Did We Get into this Mess? 142
Peter A. Übel

11 Why Are (Some) Conflicts of Interest in Medicine So Uniquely Vexing? 152
Andrew Stark

12 Commentary: Financial Conflicts of Interest and the Identity of Academic Medicine 181
Scott Y. H. Kim

PART THREE LAW

13 Legal Responses to Conflicts of Interest 189
Samuel Issacharoff

14 Commentary: Conflicts of Interest Begin Where Principal–Agent Problems End 202
George Loewenstein

15 Conflicts of Interest and Strategic Ignorance of Harm 206
Jason Dana

16 Commentary: Strategic Ignorance of Harm 224
Daylian M. Cain

PART FOUR PUBLIC POLICY

17 Conflicts of Interest in Public Policy Research 233
Robert J. MacCoun

18 Commentary: Conflicts of Interest in Policy Analysis: Compliant Pawns in Their Game? 263
Baruch Fischhoff

19 Conflict of Interest as an Objection to Consequentialist Moral Reasoning 270
Robert H. Frank
Contents

20 Commentary: Conflict of Interest as a Threat to Consequentialist Reasoning 284
  David M. Messick

Index 289