BUTTERWORTHS COMMON LAW SERIES

Buckley: The Law of Negligence

Fourth Edition

SERIES EDITOR

Andrew Grubb MA (Cantab), LLD (Lond), FMedSci
Professor of Medical Law and Head of Cardiff Law School, Cardiff University

AUTHOR

Richard A Buckley MA, D Phil
of Lincoln’s Inn, Barrister
Professor of Law in The University of Reading
Formerly Fellow of Mansfield College, Oxford

LexisNexis®
Butterworths
Contents

Series Preface vi

Preface ix

Table of statutes xvii

Table of statutory instruments xxi

Table of EU Legislation xxiii

Tables of cases xxv

Part one The Structure of the Modern Law

Chapter 1 Liability for carelessness 3
   A The changing fortunes of foreseeability 3
   B The language of the modern law 5
   C Omissions 10
   D The erosion of traditional immunities 14
   E Factors which can limit liability 17
   F Psychiatric damage 32

Chapter 2 Evaluation of conduct 44
   A Foreseeability and objectivity 44
   B The measurement of risk 46
   C Care and its quality 49
   D Proof of negligence 53

Chapter 3 Causation and remoteness 61
   A Introduction 61
   B Nature of loss and measure of damages 62
   C The foreseeability test 66
   D Intervening act by the claimant 73
   E Intervening act by third parties 77
Contents

Part two Negligence and Economic Interests

Chapter 4 Liability for negligent misstatement 85
  A The impact of Hedley Byrne 85
  B Establishing liability 87
  C Claims by third parties 93
  D Omissions 102
  E Public policy 105
  F Disclaimers of liability 109
  G Contributory negligence 112

Chapter 5 Financial loss caused by careless acts 114
  A The background to the modern law 114
  B Economic loss resulting from undamaged products 117
  C Where the claimant suffers economic loss which is consequential upon injury or damage to a third party 125
  D Assumption of responsibility 132
  E Other cases of economic loss 137

Part three Professional Negligence

Chapter 6 General principles 141
  A The Bolam test 141
  B State of knowledge 146
  C Errors of judgment 146
  D Denial of duty 147

Chapter 7 Clinical negligence 149
  A Difficulties of proof 149
  B Standard of care 151
  C Relevance of common practice 153
  D Questions of fact 154
  E Where there are differing professional schools of thought 155
  F The duty to warn 157
  G Contractual negligence 160

Chapter 8 Lawyers 161
  A End of the advocate’s immunity 161
  B Types of claim 163
  C Tort and contract 169
  D Liability to third parties 170
  E Nature of a solicitor’s contractual duty 173
  F Acting for separate parties 176
  G Counting the cost 178

xii
Chapter 9 Property and finance 182
  A Land, valuation, and construction 182
  B Financial services 188

Part four Liability Arising from Land Use

Chapter 10 Liability of occupiers 197
  A The scope of ‘occupation’ 197
  B Liability to visitors 198
  C Liability to persons other than visitors 208
  D Access under the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 214
  E Exclusion of liability 215
  F When the Acts do not apply 217
  G The Defective Premises Act 1972, s 4 223

Chapter 11 Duties to neighbouring occupiers 225
  A Negligence and private nuisance 225
  B The test of reasonableness in land use cases 226
  C Fault and foreseeability 236
  D Who can claim? 239
  E Defendants and the extent of liability 243

Chapter 12 Interference with comfort and enjoyment 249
  A The establishing of liability 249
  B Noise and vibration 251
  C Fumes, dust and smell 255
  D Further situations 256
  E Light 257
  F Air 260

Chapter 13 Physical damage to land and buildings 263
  A Introduction 263
  B Nature of damage 265
  C Natural agencies 267
  D Strict liability and the rule in Rylands v Fletcher 277
  E Role of foreseeability 288
  F Nuisance and rights of support 291

Chapter 14 Negligence and public nuisance 295
  A Nature and scope of public nuisance 295
  B Damages and liability 300
  C Relevance of fault 304
Contents

Part five Negligence Against a Statutory Background

Chapter 15 Negligence and the exercise of statutory powers 313
A The problem of discretion 313
B Justiciability 315
C Applying negligence principles 322
D Liability at policy level 331
E Protecting from harm inflicted by third parties 333
F Summary 335

Chapter 16 The action for breach of statutory duty 337
A The nature of liability 337
B The scope of the Act 342
C Defences and relationship with criminal liability 352
D Reform? 353

Part six Employers’ Liability

Chapter 17 Employers’ liability to their employees 359
A Nature of the common law duty 359
B Stress 361
C Safe system of work 363
D Statutory duties 373
E Relationship between statutory and common law duties 382

Chapter 18 Vicarious liability 384
A Introduction 384
B Who is an ‘employee’? 386
C The course of employment 390
D Independent contractors 396
E ‘Agents’ 403

Part seven Defective Products

Chapter 19 The common law 409
A Background 409
B The duty 410
C Intermediate inspection 412
D Proof of negligence 414
E Economic loss 416

Chapter 20 Strict liability by statute 419
A European background 419
B Strict liability 419
C Defences 423
D Remedies 425
Part eight  Defences

Chapter 21 Assumption of risk  431
   A  Scope of the concept  431
   B  Relationship with the duty of care  434

Chapter 22 Contribution and exclusion  436
   A  Scope of the chapter  436
   B  Contributory negligence  436
   C  Contribution between wrongdoers  448
   D  Exclusion of liability  455

Chapter 23 Land use cases  460
   A  Introduction  460
   B  Statutory authorisation  460
   C  Act of a third party  467
   D  Act of God  470
   E  ‘Coming to the nuisance’  471
   F  Assumption of risk and contributory negligence  472
   G  Prescription  474
   H  Others contribute’  476
   I  ‘Defendant unable to remedy’  477

Part nine  Damages and their Assessment

Chapter 24 The making of awards in personal injury cases  481
   A  Heads of damage  481
   B  Mitigation  485
   C  Subsequent events  487
   D  Allowing for deterioration  490
   E  Interest  492

Chapter 25 Damages recoverable for personal injury  493
   A  Non-pecuniary loss  493
   B  Financial loss  499
   C  Cost of care  514
   D  Structured settlements  518

Chapter 26 Cases involving death  520
   A  Survival of causes of action  520
   B  Claims by dependants  521
   C  Damages for bereavement  538